Declares that Jersey Governor Asked Pardon
of Harvey

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Denouncing Wilson's policy of "alternate silence and sneering," and describing his literary bureau as a "set of irresponsible chattering who claim
to live off the immaculate contributions of subscribers having wings,

Stands by Guns

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 30.—
The latest Watterson effusion brought no answer from Governor Wilson today. The governor stood by his guns when he reiterated: "Neither I nor any one else at my request asked Colonel Watterson to raise any money to be used in my behalf."

The governor added that he was perfectly willing that all letters which passed between him and Watterson be published.

Col. Watterson's Statement
The statement follows:
"The time limit set upon my stay in the national capital being about to expire and Governor Wilson having refused my offer as to the issue of refutation he has raised between us
to submit proof of the truth of my statement to party associates competent to judge both of its character
and of the expediency of its publication. I shall bring this most distasteful episode to a close as far as I am concerned."

"The claim that I must rush into print with this proof emanates either from the perverse or malignant. I have it, am ready under proper supervision to produce it and can be asked in reason to do no more. If I should publish it, the very men who are demanding that I shall would be the first to accuse me of reckless regard of what they would call party prudence and private rights. The sole issue is whether I have lied, as Governor Wilson says I have, or he has lied, which I have engaged conscientiously to show. He dare not face
the facts."

"With as brief a review as may be of the circumstances to which I owe the misfortune of having made Governor Wilson's acquaintance, not to mention my indorsement of his plans,
but with specious pretensions, I shall endeavor to trouble the public with a controversy nowise of my seeking."
"During the early summer of 1910
I was passing a week end with Colonel George Harvey, an old friend,
at Deal Beach, his home in New Jersey. There arrived for dinner Dr.
Woodrow Wilson, then president of Princeton, and the Hon. James Smith, Jr., late a senator in congress.
Mr. Wilson I had never met before.
The talk at the table was mainly about the prospective nomination of a democratic candidate for governor of New Jersey. Drawn into the conversation, I ventured the opinion that if nothing more than a governorship
was in sight it would be a sacrifice for Dr. Wilson to quit his exalted position and get down into the bull ring
of politics to struggle for preferment
so ephemeral and uncertain."

"That was probably what Colonel Harvey, who seemed under some spell wrought by Dr. Wilson had planned. Mr. Smith declared he wanted nothing for himself, only to see the state redeemed; that no one but Dr. Wilson could redeem it and the like. In due season Dr. Wilson was nominated and elected."

"Not long after I was called to New York. The situation in New Jersey was explained to me. I was told that Mr. Smith wished to be returned to the senate despite his declarations that he wanted nothing for himself; that there had been a primary which had gone by default in which a person by the name of Martine, represented as wholly unfit, had obtained a rather meager vote; that Governor Wilson held Senator Smith
in his hand and stood by the party

Dry Cyclone

Hits Congress

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.— Led by Mrs. Harris Armour of Atlanta, Ga., who was introduced as "the talking cyclone," a band of fifty white ribbons
swooped down upon the members of the senate judiciary subcommittee today and demanded to know why Uncle Sam did not prevent liquor from being shipped into "dry" territory.
"You congressmen think you are too big and too busy to go to hear temperance lectures," Mrs. Armour announced, "but you are not. If the government has the right to protect cats, dogs and pigs, why can't it keep this deadly poison out of prohibition territory?"

WATER COMMITTEE TO MEET TONIGHT

Question of Reservoir on Grand Dad Bluff Likely to Be Discussed at Meeting

DAY FAVORS RESEVOIR PLAN

Says It Will Mean Economy in Long Run; May Call In an Expert

The special water committee will hold a special meeting at the mayor's office at the city hall tonight for the purpose of considering the advisability of the erection of a reservoir
at the same time that the well system is being installed.

Not only will this question be one of the issues of the meeting but a discussion will be carried on as to the specifications, including the amount of pressure, the location, the height and cost.

That an expert will be called to the city to give advice, before any definite conclusion is reached, is the belief of Alderman Mahoney who declares that the reservoir can be erected at a cost of less than $75,000.

Mr. Mahoney today declared that he was not in a position to either advocate or oppose the reservoir a-
said that he thought that there were but few who are well enough acquainted with details of this kind to say whether or not it will be a benefit.

High Pressure Needed
"If, however, it is decided to erect a reservoir, I think that it should be at least 225 feet high or have a pressure of ninety pounds
as advocated by City Engineer Bradish, as a reservoir of lower pressure will be of no benefit to the city, the pumps having a pressure of sixty pounds," said Mr. Mahoney.
"The reservoir, if erected, will not be placed on top of the bluff as this would give a pressure of about 200 pounds and the pipes of the city water system would not be strong enough to stand this pressure. Not only that, but it would require 200 pounds of pressure to pump the water into the reservoir."

Day Favors Reservoir
That a reservoir located at the proper height on Granddad bluff will prove an economy in the long run,
was the opinion expressed by James T. Day, president of the board of public works, in an interview today.
"Not only will it be the means of saving a large amount of money to the taxpayers in equipment at the pumping station but it will cause a reduction of insurance rates in the city," said Mr. Day. "A reservoir located on the bluff would mean that the city is always prepared for any fire emergency. The 100 pound pressure required would always be reserved for instant use while with the pump system it is impossible to get up 100 pounds of pressure in much less than an hour's time. I am heartily in favor of the reservoir plan."

The members of the committee who will be present at tonight's meeting
are: Aldermen P. W. Mahoney, W.
H. Tarbox, J. C. Houska, B. C.
Smith, William Roellig, Otto Granke,
Adm. Kroner, Mayor John Dengler,
City Engineer George P. Bradish, City Clerk E. H. Hoffman, and City Attorney A. H. Schubert.

PLEADS FOR STEEL SLAVES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Dramatically pleading for the "slaves" of the steel trust, exhorting the combination for its "compulsory elimination among the employees of the rights omen," and its gigantic profits, Louis Brandeis continued his testimony
before the Stanley committee.

GROCCER IS BANKRUPT

Otto E. Fischer, a north side groceryman, through Morris & Hartwell
today filed a petition in bankruptcy.
His assets are scheduled at $1,873.51
and his liabilities $1,280. Mr. Fischer has been in business for the past three years.

DARROW CHARGED WITH BRIBERY

McNamaras' Attorney Indicted by Grand Jury for Tampering with Two Jurors

ARRAIGNMENT ON THURSDAY

Lawyer Announces His Confidence of Acquittal
of the Serious Charge

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 30.—Clarence Darrow, noted lawyer and author, for years the chief mainstay of organized labor in the United States in the courts, was arraigned yesterday afternoon on charges of bribery growing out of the Mc-Namara case, the county grand jury having returned two indictments against him late yesterday afternoon, one for the bribery of George N. Lockwood and another for bribing Juror Robert Bain.
Darrow was in Judge Conrey's court when the indictments were reported. The warrants were read to him there and bail bond of $20,000 was at once provided for him.

Thursday at 10 o'clock was set
by Acting Presiding Judge Conrey
as the date of arraignment.

Prison Term Possible.
Each of the two indictments returned against Mr. Darrow contains two counts. A conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the state's prison for not less than one nor more than ten years.

Sure of Acquittal.
"I do not know what evidence has been presented to the grand jury, but I do know that no act of mine can be connected, even remotely, with any criminal work. I am ready to face any accusation before any just tribunal. My record is clear and I shall defend my honor by every means I can command, confident that the end of this fight will see me fully vindicated and my name still un-smirched."

This was the statement made to the press today by Darrow.

Franklin Confesses?
The officials at the district attorney's office refused to discuss a report that Franklin, former chief investigator for the McNamara defense, who was arrested on a bribery charge, had made a complete confession to Assistant District Attorney Ford. Franklin, himself, declined to deny the report.
There was a general belief that Franklin had made some sort of statement to the state.

TO INVESTIGATE DEATH

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Jan. 30.—C.
L. Chesmore, 60, wealthy farmer living at Alburnett, nine miles north of here, gasped and fell dead at the supper table last night. Coroner King is on his way there today to hold an inquest. Chesmore was living with his second wife, a handsome woman of 30, whom he married after divorcing his first wife. He returned home late for supper last night and his wife prepared a special meal for him and he had not finished it when he dropped to the floor dead.

BODY MASS OF BRUISES

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—When the inquest into the death of little Nellie Goethel, who it is charged was beaten and tortured until she died began today, physicians of the coroner's office testified that the five-year-old child's body was one mass
of bruises and broken flesh. Dr.
Rheinhardt testified that never before in his practice had he seen a body with the flesh so bruised and swollen.

KIDNAPING MYSTERY DEEPER

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Baffling developments were added to the mystery confronting the police in the investigation of the disappearance of 13-year-old Antonio Magliore
from his home here Sunday, when it was learned today that Michael Magliore, the boy's uncle, died suddenly at the home of the child's parents either Sunday or Monday.

PETER KNUTSON FINED

Peter Knutson, a north side saloon keeper, was fined $12.50 by Judge Kroner in police court this morning. Knutson was charged with having used abusive language.

REFER DEMANDS TO COMMITTEE

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 30.—
The question of a new agreement between miner and operator in the bituminous coal mining industry was referred today to a subcommittee of the joint interstate wage conference.

BATHTUB TRIAL POSTPONED

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 30.—The so-called Bathbub trust cases which were originally set for trial today
have been postponed until Feb. 6.

Unknown Hero Saves Drowning Man

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 30.—
—A hundred persons saw an unknown hero rescue a drowning man from the Milwaukee
river today and then modestly hurry off without making known his identity. The unknown rescuer was standing on the rear platform of a St. Paul road passenger train, in-bound from Chicago, when he espied a man struggling in the water, near the Reed street bridge. Jumping from the train and into the water he hauled the man to safety and then disappeared.

JURY COMMISSION ANSWER CHARGES

Submit Statement to Judge Higbee Regarding the Methods of Drawing Jurors

HIGBEE BLAMES AGITATOR

Declares He Believes Purpose of Accusations Is to Arouse Class Hatred

Judge E. C. Higbee today denounced the resolution presented to him
by the social democrats of La Crosse
asking for an investigation of the La Crosse county jury commissioners and their dismissal from office, as being originated by a political agitator instead of a responsible body
of men.

In his statement to the jury commissioners submitted to that body
yesterday, Judge Higbee declares that he is of the belief that "the resolution which charges the jury commissioners with discrimination against the working men, in selecting juries, is the product of an agitator whose purpose it is to cause
class hatred and that the resolution
did not have the sanction of more than a few citizens, and that these were but poorly informed in regard to laws connected with the drawing of juries."

Judge Higbee submitted the following to the jury commissioners and received their reply yesterday:

Judge Asks Statement
"Mr. Frank Coburn, Mr. William
Smith and Mr. John Ulrich, Jury Commissioners, La Crosse County, Wisconsin.

"Gentlemen: I herewith submit
for your consideration a preamble and resolution purporting to have been adopted by the 'social democratic party,' charging that you have selected your names for the jury list
for this county from 'favored, political and business classes,' and demanding that 'all names of La Crosse
county citizens are put on the eligible list.' You will observe that this resolution is unattended by any officer or person, and I suspect that instead of having been adopted by any responsible body of men that it is the product of some agitator who desires to foment class hatred and discredit the work of our courts. For I cannot credit the idea that any considerable number of our citizens are so uninformed as to the law as to believe that the names of all citizens
may be placed upon the jury list; and while I know from the painstaking conscientious work which you have performed as jury commissioners and an examination of the petit jury lists
as well as from your own known standing and reputation for fair and honest dealing that the charges are baseless, yet I believe that the public is entitled to have a statement from you concerning the matter."

"Yours truly,
"E. C. HIGBEE."

The jury commissioners deny having shown any discrimination at any time in the selecting of a jury list.
Their reply follows:
"Replying to your communication concerning the resolution purporting to have been adopted by the social democratic party, would say that section 2533b of the revised statutes
of this state, among other things, provides 'such commissioners shall provide from time to time as may be necessary, one list of names to be drawn from the body of the county
to serve as petit jurors, and in making such lists shall put there only the names of such persons as they believe to be possessed of the qualifications prescribed in sections 2524
and 2530. The number of names to be placed on such lists shall be determined by the judges of said several courts."

"Section 2530 provides that we 'shall select such persons only as we know or have good reason to believe are possessed of their natural faculties and are not infirm or decrepit,
and who are esteemed in their communities as men of good character,
approved integrity and sound judgment and who are able to read and write the English language understandingly and who possess all other qualifications required by this chapter."

500 is the Limit
"Section 2533c provides among other things that 'whenever the list of names furnished any such court

TAFT STANDS ON PARTY RECORD

Fires Opening Gun of the Campaign at Banquet
in Cleveland Last Evening

HE POINTS WITH PRIDE

The President Reviews Record of Administration and Calls it Good; Defies Democrats

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 30.— Defying the democratic party to show where the present administration had failed in keeping its pre-election pledges, President Taft opened his campaign for re-election
with a speech last night at the McKinley day banquet of the Tippecanoe club of this city.

The president went over the work of the administration, declaring that the record was clear. He devoted a great part of his time to defending the Payne-Aldrich tariff, and justifying his vetoes of the democratic revision bills passed at the extra session. He said that he vetoes the tariff revision bills because they were "drawn in such an unscientific, unsystematic and reckless way," and because he desired to await the report of the tariff board on the measures involved.

He declared that the country as a whole still was not inclined to favor a tariff for revenue only, and that the protection policy of the republican party had not been repudiated at the 1910 elections.
The reason, he said, that the democrats had won in 1910, was that a great many republicans had failed to vote, staying home rather than cast their vote for what they regarded as failure to stand by the party pledges.

Regarding the rumor that the democrats intend to withhold the appropriation for the tariff board,
Mr. Taft said that he would welcome this action on the part of the democrats, as it would serve to make clear the difference between the two parties, and would also emphasize the advantages of the republican attitude.

The president also defended the corporation tax, claiming full responsibility for the measure.
He claimed for the administration complete enforcement of the laws, including the interstate commerce law, and the anti-trust law.

During the afternoon, before his address at the Tippecanoe banquet,
Mr. Taft was present at a political conference at the home of former Governor Myron T. Herrick, which was also attended by Arthur I. Vorsies and William H. Miller, former assistant attorney general of the state.

Gets to Columbus.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 30.—
President Taft arrived at 7:13
o'clock this morning.
The president will dedicate the new federal building today, and tomorrow morning will address the constitutional convention. Several informal talks at another McKinley day banquet tonight for the day's program.

Political Love Feast

A political love feast, with W. H.
Taft, president, republican, and Justice Harmon, governor, democrat, as the guests of honor marked the luncheon of the Columbus chamber of commerce to the president today.
The president and the governor,
both of them candidates for the presidential nomination of their parties next fall sat side by side at the speaker's table and when the president arose he paid his compliments to the man he may oppose on the stump.

"Governor Harmon and I have many things in common," he said,
"so that when we met here in the hotel, we were unable to maintain that attitude that the proprietors demanded and we had a talk. We talked politics. You would be surprised to know how many subjects we are agreed upon. Our views on insurgency do not differ greatly."

TO VACCINATE 1,000

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Because Mr.
Carl Kessler of Detroit went about
for a week in search of work, suffering all the time from a fully developed case of smallpox, health authorities today are following up the man's trail, intent upon vaccinating everybody with whom he came in contact. Over 1,000 persons will be vaccinated.

ROBBERS SHOOT MAN

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—William Hey-me was shot and probably fatally injured by hold-up men in a saloon here early today. Two strangers in the saloon playing dice when the proprietor locked the doors at 1 a.
m. When the men finished their game they drew revolvers and ordered the proprietor and Heyme to throw up their hands. Heyme refused and started to fight.

Chinese Celebrate New Years Day

Dirty shirts. Dirty collars.
Dirty linen. That is the problem that is staring people of other cities in the face, but La Crosse remains placid. Today is Chinese New Years and the first day of a two weeks' celebration and while other cities
are in the grip of a laundry famine, La Crosse finds that there is not a single Chinaman in this city upon whom they are dependent in this respect.
The worst that can happen to La Crosse is a two weeks' abstencence from chop suey, and Lee Sing, proprietor of the local chop suey restaurant has not yet signified his intention of even visiting this calamity upon the people.

HARVEY-WILSON LETTERS PUBLIC

Correspondence Shows the Personal Friendship Was Not Ruptured by the Watterson Incident

WASN'T EXACTLY SMOOTH

Candidate Wrote Harvey Regretting that Statement as to Harper's
was Not Sugar-coated

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—The letters which passed between Governor Wilson of New Jersey and Colonel George J. Harvey just before the latter ceased supporting the governor
for the democratic presidential nomination, are published this afternoon
by the New York Evening Post. The first, sent by the governor to the editor after saying that his (Wilson's)
"mind is a one track road and can run only one train of thought at a time," says:

"When you asked me that question, about the Weekly, I answered it simply as a matter of fact and of business, and said never a word of my sincere gratitude to you for all of your generous support, or of my hope that it might be continued. Forgive me and forget my manners."

The next is a lengthy letter from Harvey to Wilson in which the former says emphatically "no personal" issue can arise between them. The colonel explains that in advocating the governor as a presidential possibility he was "rendering a distinct public service," and explains that when the governor asked him to stop supporting him in the Weekly there "was nothing else to do." In conclusion Harvey says:

Harvey Forgives
"Whatever little hurt I may have felt as a consequence of the unexpected peremptoriness of your attitude toward me is of course, wholly eliminated by your gracious words."

In reply Wilson wrote that, while the Harvey letter was "generous and cordial," it was plain that he did hurt
the colonel by what he so "tactlessly" said. Wilson then says: "I am very much ashamed of myself—for there is nothing I am more ashamed of than hurting a true friend." The governor then expresses regret for not seeing the colonel in Washington, and says: "I owe it to you and to my own thought and feeling to tell you how grateful I am for all your generous praise and support of me (no one has described me more nearly as I would like to believe myself
than you have)—how I have admired your courage and individuality of your course, and how far I was from desiring that you cease your support of me in the Weekly. You will think me very stupid—but I did not think of that as the result of my blunt answer to your question. I thought only of the means of convincing people of the real independence of the Weekly's position. You will remember that that was what we discussed. And now that I have unintentionally put you in a false and embarrassing position, you heap coals of fire on my head by continuing to give out interviews favorable to my candidacy. All that I can say is that you have proved yourself very big and that I wish to have an opportunity to tell you face to face how I really feel about it."

In answer Harvey said:

"There is no particle of personal rancor or resentment left in me and I beg you to believe I have not said
one word to anybody of criticism
about you."
Col. Harvey then inclosed the explanation which was printed in Harper's Weekly telling why that paper stopped supporting the governor for the democratic presidential nomination.

THE OPINION IS UNANIMOUS

All Judges on Bench Join

Law; Two Do Not Sit

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 30.—The supreme court of the state of Wisconsin this morning declared unconstitutional the water power act enacted by the last state legislature.
The act provided for state regulation and control of thousands of miles of navigable streams and millions of dollars worth of property.
The opinion declaring the act unconstitutional was written by Justice
Timlin. The court was unanimous.
Justices Kerwin and Barnes did not sit. The gist of the court's decision follows:

"Thus the all pervading necessary effect of such chapter is to take property which in fact is private for a purpose declared to be public without rendering any compensation therefor. The necessary effect, if enforced—and so the purpose is in a legal sense—of chapter 652, laws of 1911, being state appropriation of private rights of riparian proprietors owning the banks of navigable rivers, in a manner not warranted by the fundamental law, and those portions of the act which do not directly
deal with the assertion of state title,
being features designed to render such assertion efficacious, it all forms an inseparable unconstitutionality in its entirety."

The water power law of 1911 contemplated the repeal of all private and local laws granting water power rights and vested such rights in the state. The state, represented by the attorney general, held that the act
does not assert the state's ownership of navigable waters but that their beneficial use and energy for all public uses are held by the state in trust for the people. Power to regulate and lease water power rights is conferred by the act upon the state railroad commission.

The plaintiff companies argued that the act is based upon the assumption that property worth over $40,000,000, heretofore conceded to belong to riparians, is the property of the state. By this act all franchises and permits for dams are repealed. These are numbered by the hundreds throughout the state.

The act provides a penalty of $50
a day for each day a dam, bridge or other obstruction is maintained over navigable waters without first obtaining a franchise from the state.

The law was framed by a special committee of the 1909 legislature.
Senator Paul Hustung, one of the committee's members, filed a brief
with the court setting forth the attitude of the legislature which enacted the law. The brief for the state was prepared by Deputy Attorney General Russell Jackson, with George Lines,
Walter D. Congdon and Theodore Kronshage, Milwaukee, as counsel.

WISCONSIN INCOME TAX LAW

Chapter 658, Laws of 1911.
An act to create sections 1087m-1 to 1087m-30, inclusive, and amend section 1036; subsection 10, of section 1038; subsection 11, of section 1038; subdivision (a), of subsection 1038a; subdivision (h), of subsection 11a, of section 1038; and repeal subsection 10a, of section 1038 of the statutes, relating to taxation of incomes, and making an appropriation therefor.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. There are added to the statutes thirty new sections to read: Section 1087m-1. There shall be assessed levied, collected and paid a tax upon incomes received during the year ending December 31, 1911, and upon incomes received annually thereafter, by such persons and from such sources as hereinafter described: provided, that firms, copartnerships, corporations, joint stock companies and associations which customarily close their annual accounts on a date other than December 31, or which customarily estimate their income or profits on a basis other than of actual cash receipts and disbursements may, with the consent and approval of the tax commission, return for assessment and taxation the income or profits earned during the business year for which the accounts of such person are customarily made up.

Section 1087m-2. 1. The term "person," as used in this act, shall mean and include any individual, firm, copartnership, and every corporation, joint stock company or association organized for profit, and having a capital stock represented by shares, unless otherwise expressly stated.

2. The term "income," as used in this act, shall include:

(a) All rent or real estate, including the estimated rental or residence property occupied by the owner thereof.

(b) All interest derived from money loaned or invested in notes, mortgages, bonds or other evidences of debt of any kind whatsoever.

(c) All wages, salaries or fees derived from services; provided that compensation to public officers shall not be computed as part of the taxable income in such cases where the taxation thereof would be repugnant to the constitution.

(d) All dividends or profits derived from stock or from the purchase and sale of any property or other valuables acquired within three years previous or from any business whatever.

(e) All royalties derived from the possession or use of franchises or legalized privileges of any kind.

(f) And all other income of any kind derived from any source whatever except such as is hereinafter exempted.

3. The tax shall be assessed, levied and collected upon all income, not hereinafter exempted, received by every person residing within the state, and by every nonresident of the state upon such income as is derived from sources within the state or within its jurisdiction. So much of the income of any person residing within the state as is derived from rentals, stocks, bonds, securities or evidences of indebtedness shall be assessed and taxed, whether such income is derived from sources within or without the state; provided that any person engaged in business within and without the state shall, with respect to income other than that derived from rentals, stocks, bonds, securities or evidences of indebtedness, be taxed only upon that proportion of such income as is derived from business transacted and property located within the state, which shall be determined in the manner specified in subdivision 1770b, as far as applicable.

Section 1087m-3. Every corporation, joint stock company or association shall be allowed to make from its gross income the following deductions:

(a) Payments made within the year for personal services of officers and employees actually employed in the production of such income; provided, there be reported the name, address and amount paid each officer or employee to whom a compensation of seven hundred dollars or more shall have been paid during the assessment year.

(b) Other ordinary and necessary expenses actually paid within the year out of income in the maintenance and operation of its business and property, including a reasonable allowance for depreciation of property from which the income is derived.

(c) All bonds issued by a corporation shall be deemed an interest in the property and business of such corporation; and so much of the interest payable on such bonds as is represented by the ratio between the property located and business transacted within this state to the total property located and business of such corporation as provided in subdivision 3, of section 1087m-2, shall be subject to taxation under this act

at the same rate as the income of such corporation. Such tax shall be assessed to the bondholders under the general designation "The Bondholders of . . . ." (inserting the name of the corporation), but shall be a lien upon the property and business of such corporation prior to all other liens, and unless paid by the bondholders shall be enforced against the corporation. When paid by the corporation the amount of such tax may be deducted from the next interest payment on such bonds, unless otherwise provided by contract.

(c) Losses actually sustained within the year for taxes imposed by any station of this union or subdivision thereof, or any territory or possession of the United States, upon the source from which the income taxes by this act is derived.

(e) Dividends or income received within the year from stocks or interest in any firm, copartnership or corporation, joint stock company or association, the income of which shall have been assessed under the provisions of this act; provided, such firm, copartnership, corporation, joint stock company or association report at the time of assessment the name and address of each such person owning stocks or interest in the same and the amount of dividends or income paid such person during the assessment year.

(f) Interest received from bonds or other securities exempt from taxation under the laws of the United States.

Section 1087m-4. Persons other than corporations, joint stock companies or associations, in reporting incomes for purposes of taxation shall be allowed the following deductions:

(a) The ordinary and necessary expenses actually paid within the year in carrying on the profession, occupation or business from which the income is derived, including a reasonable allowance for depreciation of the property from which the income is derived. But no deductions shall be made for any amount paid for personal services unless these be reported, the name, address and the amount paid each such employee to whom a compensation of seven hundred dollars or more shall have been paid during the assessment year.

(b) Losses during the year and not compensated for by insurance or otherwise.

(c) Dividends or incomes received by any person from stocks, or interest in any firm, copartnership, corporation, joint stock company or association, the income of which shall have been assessed under the provisions of this act; provided, said firm, copartnership, corporation, joint stock company or association report at the time of assessment the name and address of each such person owning stock or interest in the same and the amount of dividends or income paid such persons during the assessment year.

(d) Interest paid within the year on existing indebtedness; provided the debtor reports the amount so paid, the form of the indebtedness, together with the name and address of the creditor.

(e) Interest received from bonds or other securities exempt from taxation under the laws of the United States.

(f) Salaries or other compensation received from the United States by officials thereof.

(g) Pensions received from the United States.

(h) Taxes paid by such persons during the year other than inheritance taxes upon the property or business from which the income hereby taken is derived.

(i) All inheritances, devises and bequests received during the year upon which an inheritance tax shall have been paid to this state.

(j) Insurance to the total amount of ten thousand dollars received by any person or persons legally dependent upon the decedent, in payment of a death claim by an insurance company, fraternal benefit society or other insurer.

Section 1087m-5. 1. There shall be exempt from taxation under this act income as follows, to-wit:

(a) To an individual income up to and including eight hundred dollars.

(b) To husband and wife, twelve hundred dollars;

(c) For each child under the age of eighteen years, two hundred dollars;

(d) For each additional person, for whose support the taxpayer is legally liable and who is entirely dependent upon the taxpayer for his support, two hundred dollars.

(e) The aforesaid exemptions shall not apply to incomes derived from sources within the state by nonresidents thereof, nor to firms, copartnerships, corporations, joint stock companies nor association. In computing said exemptions and the amounts of taxes payable under section 1087m-7 of this act, the income of a wife shall be added to the income of her husband, and the income of each child under eighteen years of age to that of its parent or parents, when said wife or child is not living separately from said husband, parent or parents.

2. Income of any mutual savings or loan and building association, or of any religious, scientific, educational, benevolent or other association of individuals not organized or conducted for pecuniary profit.

3. Incomes derived from property and privileges by persons now required by law to pay taxes or license fees directly into the treasury of the state in lieu of taxes, and such persons shall continue to pay taxes and license fees as heretofore.

4. Income received by the United States, the state and all counties, cities, villages, school districts or other political units of this state.

Section 1087m-6. 1. The tax to be assessed, levied and collected upon the incomes of all persons, except as otherwise provided by law, after making such deductions and exemptions as are hereinbefore allowed, shall be computed at the following rates, to-wit:

(a) On the first one thousand dollars of taxable income or any part thereof, at the rate of one per cent;

(b) On the second one thousand dollars or any part thereof, one and one-fourth per cent;

(c) On the third one thousand dollars or any part thereof, one and one-half per cent;

(d) On the fourth one thousand dollars or any part thereof, one and three-fourths per cent;

(e) On the fifth one thousand dollars or any part thereof, two per cent;

(f) On the sixth one thousand dollars or any part thereof, two and one-half per cent;

(g) On the seventh one thousand dollars or any part thereof, three per cent;

(h) On the eighth one thousand dollars or any part thereof, three and one-half per cent;

(i) On the ninth one thousand dollars or any part thereof, four per cent.

(j) On the tenth one thousand dollars or any part thereof, four and one-half per cent;

(k) On the eleventh one thousand dollars or any part thereof, five per cent;

(l) On the twelfth one thousand dollars or any part thereof, five and one-half per cent;

(m) On any sum of taxable income in excess of twelve thousand dollars, six per cent.

2. Providing, however, that the tax to be assessed, levied and collected upon the incomes of corporations, joint stock companies or associations, after making due allowance for deductions as hereinbefore provided, shall be computed at the following rates, to-wit:

(a) If the taxable income equals one per cent or less of the assessed value of the property used and employed in the acquisition of such income, the rate of tax shall be one-half of one per cent of such income.

(b) If the taxable income equals more than one, but does not exceed two per cent of the assessed value of the property used and employed in the acquisition of such income, the rate shall be one per cent of such income.

(c) If the taxable income equals more than two, but does not exceed three per cent of the assessed value of the property used and employed in the acquisition of such income, the rate of the tax shall be one and one-half per cent of such income.

(d) If the taxable income equals more than three, but does not exceed four per cent of the assessed value of the property used and employed in the acquisition of such income, the rate of the tax shall be two per cent of such income.

(e) If the taxable income equals more than four, but does not exceed five per cent of the assessed value of the property used and employed in the acquisition of such income, the rate shall be two and one-half per cent of such income.

(f) If the taxable income equals more than five, but does not exceed six per cent of the assessed value of the property used and employed in the acquisition of such income, the rate of the tax shall be three per cent of such income.

(g) And in like manner the tax upon the taxable income shall continue to increase at the rate of one-half of one per cent for each additional one per cent or fractional part thereof that the taxable income bears to the assessed value of the property used and employed in the acquisition of such income, until the rate of profits equals twelve per cent of such assessed value of the property used and employed in the acquisition of such income, when such rate shall continue as a proportional rate of six per cent of such taxable income.

Section 1087m-7. The legislature intends subsection 2, of section 1087m-6 of this act, to be a separate part thereof, so that said subsection may fail or be declared invalid that in event of its failing or being declared invalid the incomes of corporations, joint stock companies and associations shall be subject and shall be constructed to have been subject to taxation at the rates specified in subsection 1, of section 1087m-6, and said incomes shall be reassessed by the tax commission and taxed for the years for which the rates provided in subsection 2, of section 1087m-6, shall have failed.

Section 1087m-8. 1. The state shall be divided into assessment districts by the state tax commission, but in no instance shall a county be divided.

2. Not less than thirty days prior to the first of March 1912, there shall be selected and appointed by the state tax commission as assessor of incomes for each assessment district in the state, who shall hold office for a term of three years unless sooner removed as hereinafter provided. Such assessor shall be a citizen and an elector of this state, but need not be a resident of the district in which he is appointed to serve; provided, however, that so far as practicable, preference shall be given in making such appointments to residents of the districts.

3. The tax commission may in its discretion transfer any assessor of incomes from one district to another and may remove any assessor of incomes or his deputy from office.

4. Before entering upon his duties such assessor of incomes shall subscribe to the constitutional oath and file the same in the office of the secretary of state.

5. The state tax commission may authorize any assessor of incomes to appoint such deputies and other assistants as may be required for the proper performance of his duties. Such deputies shall qualify in like manner and possess the same powers as the assessor.

Section 1087m-9. The salaries of the assessors of incomes and their deputies and assistants shall be fixed by the state tax commission, but such salaries, together with the expenses of such assessors and their deputies and assistants, shall not in any year exceed in amount of five cents for every thousand dollar of the valuation of all property as fixed by the tax commission in the state assessment of the preceding year. The assessor shall be furnished all necessary printing, stationery and postage, and he and his deputies shall be entitled to receive their actual necessary expenses while traveling in the performance of their duties. The salaries of the assessor and his assistants, and all such expenditures shall be audited and paid out of the state treasury in the same manner as other similar salaries and state expenses are audited and paid.

Section 1087m-10. 1. The state tax commission and the assessors of income shall annually on the first day of January, or as soon thereafter as practicable, proceed to assess as hereinafter provided every income received during the preceding calendar year liable to taxation under the provisions of this act. The assessment of corporations, joint stock companies and associations shall be made by the state tax commission, and the assessment of persons, other than corporations, joint stock companies and associations shall be by the county assessor of incomes.

2. In the performance of such duty the state tax commission and the county assessors of incomes shall respectively possess all powers now or hereafter granted by law to the state tax commission or assessors in the assessment of personal property and also the power to estimate incomes.

3. Every corporation, joint stock company or association, whether taxable under this act or not, shall furnish to the tax commission a true and accurate statement at such time, in such manner and form and setting forth such facts as said commission shall deem necessary to enforce the provisions of this act. Such statement shall be made upon the oath or affirmation of the president, vice president or other principal officer and the treasurer of said corporation, joint stock company or association.

4. Whenever in the judgment of the assessor of incomes any person in his district other than a corporation, joint stock company or association shall be subject to an income tax under the provisions of this act, he shall require such person to make report in such manner and form as the tax commission may prescribe, specifying particularly among other items the amount of income received from services, unsecured notes, mortgages, bonds, stocks, real estate and other such information as the commission shall deem necessary to enforce the provisions of this act.

5. Every guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, agent or receiver, and every other person or corporation acting in a fiduciary capacity, shall make and render to the assessor of incomes of the district in which such representative resides, a verified list of returns as aforesaid of the amount of income of any such person, ward or beneficiary. The return so made shall be signed by the person rendering it, and by the president and secretary thereof, if a corporation.

6. For each question unanswered the assessor or deputy assessor, failing to present satisfactory cause for such omission, shall be subject to a penalty of five dollars, and said penalty shall be deducted from the compensation, of said assessor or deputy assessor at the time such compensation is paid.

Section 1087m-11. 1. Whenever evidence shall be produced before the state tax commission, justifying the belief that in any one or more of the three next previous years the returns made by any corporation, joint stock company or association are incorrect, or are made with false or fraudulent intent, or when any corporation, joint stock company or association has failed or refused to make a return as required by law the state tax commission may require from every such corporation, joint stock company or association such further information with reference to its capital, income, losses, expenditures and business transactions as is deemed expedient. Upon the information so required the state tax commission may make such additions or corrections to the assessed as is deemed true and just, such correction to be made in the next tax levy. Whenever the state tax commission shall so increase or make subject to tax any income, it shall give notice in writing to the person liable for the payment of the tax on said income of the amount of the assessment. Such notice may be served by registered mail.

2. In case any return made by any corporation, joint stock company or association is made with false or fraudulent intent or in case of a refusal or neglect to make a return as required by law, and an additional amount is discovered, the amount so discovered shall be subject to twice the original rate. The amount so added to the tax shall be collected at such time and in such manner as may be designated by the state tax commission.

3. In case of neglect occasioned by the sickness or absence of an officer of any corporation, joint stock company or association required to make said return, or for other sufficient reason, the state tax commission may allow such further time for making and delivering such return as it may deem necessary, not to exceed thirty days.

4. If any of the corporation, joint stock companies or associations aforesaid shall fail or refuse to make a return at the time or times hereinbefore specified in each year, or shall render a false or fraudulent return, such corporation, joint stock company or association shall be liable to a penalty of not less than one hundred dollars and not to exceed five hundred dollars at the discretion of the court.

5. Any officer of a corporation, joint stock company or association required by law to make, render, sign or verify any return who makes any false or fraudulent return or statement, with intent to defeat or evade the assessment required by this act to be made, shall upon conviction be fined not to exceed five hundred dollars or be imprisoned not to exceed one year, or both, at the discretion of the court, with the cost of prosecution.

Section 1087m-12. 1. Whenever the assessor of incomes or the county board of review herein provided for shall have reason to believe that in any one or more of the three next previous years the returns made by any person other than a corporation, joint stock company or association are incorrect or are made with false or fraudulent intent, or when any such person has failed or refused to make a return as required by law, the assessor or county board of review shall make such additions or corrections to the next assessment as he or they shall give notice in writing to the person liable for the payment of the tax on said income of the amount of the assessment. Such notice may be served by registered mail.

2. In case any return made by any person other than a corporation, joint stock company or association is made with false or fraudulent intent, or in case of a refusal or neglect to make a return as required by law, and an additional amount is discovered, the amount so discovered shall be subject to twice the original rate.

3. Any person, other than a corporation, joint stock company or association who fails or refuses to make a return at the time hereinbefore specified in each year or shall render a false or fraudulent return shall upon conviction be fined not to exceed five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned not to exceed one year, or both, at the discretion of the court, together with the cost of prosecution.

Section 1087m-13. Any corporation, joint stock company or association subject to assessment by the state tax commission, feeling aggrieved by the decision of said commission regarding the assessment of its income, shall be granted the same rights of hearing and appeal as are now granted corporations assessed by said commission.

Section 1087m-14. The state tax commission shall appoint three resident taxpayers of each county to serve as a board of review, and shall fix their compensation, which shall not be more than ten dollars per day, and shall be audited and paid in the same manner as the salary of assessors under this act is paid.

Section 1087m-15. The county clerk shall be clerk of such board, and shall keep an accurate record of all changes in the assessment rolls made by the board. The county clerk shall take full minutes of all evidence given before the board; provided, however, that the board, with the approval of the assessor of incomes, may in cases where they deem it advisable, employ a stenographic reporter to take such evidence in shorthand, and extend the same in typewritten form. The county clerk shall preserve in his office a record of all such proceedings, minutes and evidence taken, and all documentary evidence offered. The stenographer shall be paid by the state, but the board may, in its discretion, charge the expenses to the complaining party or parties appearing before the board.

Section 1087m-16. 1. The county board of review of each county, constituting an assessment district, shall meet annually on the last Monday of July at 10 o'clock a. m. at the court house in said county to hear complaints and to review the assessments of income made by the assessor. A majority shall constitute a quorum.

2. In assessment districts composed of more than one county the board of review of the county designated by the assessor of incomes shall meet as provided above and the board of review of each remaining county of the district shall meet as soon thereafter as is possible for the assessor of incomes to be present. The date of such meeting shall be fixed by the assessor of incomes.

3. Notice of the annual meeting of each county board of review shall be published in a newspaper of the county at least one week previous to such meeting.

4. The board may adjourn from day to day, and from time to time, until its business is completed, but no adjournment other than from day to day shall be had except upon written request and for satisfactory cause shown.

5. Attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers before said board may be compelled by subpoena, issued by the clerk thereof, a justice of the peace or a court commissioner.

Section 1087m-17. 1. The board shall hear and examine, and permit the assessor to examine, any aggrieved or other person upon oath who shall appear before it in relation to any assessment or commission of income, and may increase or lessen the amount of any income assessed, if satisfied from the evidence submitted, that such change should be made.

2. The board shall not increase any assessments, nor assess any income not on the roll without notice in writing to the person liable for payment of tax thereon, or his agent, if either be resident of the county, of such intention in time to appear and be heard before the board in relation thereto.

Section 1087m-18. No person subject to assessment by the county assessor shall be allowed in any action or proceeding to question any assessment of income, unless objections thereto shall first have been presented to the county board of review in good faith and full disclosure made under oath of any and all income of such party liable to assessment.

Section 1087m-19. 1. Any person dissatisfied with any determination of the county board of review may appeal within twenty days to the state tax commission, to whom a copy of the record of the board shall be certified, together with all evidence or a copy thereof, relating to such assessment.

2. The tax commission shall review such assessments from the record thus submitted and shall make necessary corrections and certify its conclusion to the county clerk, who shall duly notify the person liable for the tax and enter upon the assessment roll any change made by the commission.

Section 1087m-20. 1. The state tax commission shall review such assessments from the record thus submitted and shall make necessary corrections and certify its conclusion to the county clerk, who shall duly notify the person liable for the tax and enter upon the assessment roll any change made by the commission.

Section 1087m-21. The tax upon the income of persons other than corporations, joint stock companies and associations shall be computed by the county clerk, assisted by the assessor of incomes and said clerk shall on or before November first, certify to each town, city and village clerk the names of all persons whose incomes are assessed in his own town, city or village, and the amount of tax levied against each such person, and such amount shall be entered by the town, city or village clerks in a separate column designated "income tax" upon the tax roll of the year, and shall be collected and paid as personal property taxes are now collected and paid as personal taxes are now collected and paid.

Section 1087m-22. The place at which the income tax herein provided for shall be assessed, levied and collected shall be determined as follows:

1. In their return for purposes of assessment persons deriving incomes from within and without the state from more than one political subdivision of the state shall make a separate accounting of the income derived from without the state and from each political subdivision of the state in such form and manner as the tax commission may prescribe.

2. The entire taxable income of every person deriving income from within and without the state or from within different political subdivisions of the state, when such person resides within the state, shall be combined and aggregated for the purpose of determining the proper exemptions and proper rate of taxation. The taxable income so computed shall be assessed, and taxes at such rate shall be paid, in the several towns, cities and villages in proportion to the respective amounts derived from each, counting that part of the income derived from without the state when taxable as having been derived from the town, city or village in which said person resides.

3. Income derived by non-residents of the state from sources within the state or within its jurisdiction, shall be separately assessed and taxed in the town, city or village from which such income is derived, at a rate determined by the total income derived from within any single town, city or village.

4. All laws not in conflict with the provisions of this act regulating the time, place and manner of payment of taxes on personal property, the collection thereof by action, distress or otherwise and the return of personal property taxes unpaid, shall apply to the income tax herein provided for.

Section 1087m-23. The revenue derived from such income tax shall be divided as follows, to-wit: Ten per cent to the state, twenty per cent to the county and seventy per cent to the town, city or village in which the tax was assessed, levied and collected, which shall be remitted and accounted for in the same manner as the state and county taxes collected from property are remitted and paid.

Section 1087m-24. 1. No commissioner, assessor of incomes, deputy member of a county board of review, or any other officer, clerk or employee shall divulge or make known to any person in any manner except as provided by law, any information whatsoever obtained directly or indirectly by him in the discharge of his duties or permit any income return or copy thereof or any paper or book so obtained to be seen or examined by any person except as provided by law.

2. Any officer, agent, clerk or employee violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than one month nor more than six months, or by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than two years, at the discretion of the court.

3. Such officer, agent, clerk or employee upon such conviction shall also forfeit his office or employment and shall be incapable of holding any public office in this state for a period of three years thereafter.

4. Nothing herein shall be construed as preventing the assessment roll, the tax roll and all proceedings had before the county board of review and all evidence taken at such hearing from being open to public inspection at such times and under such conditions as the state tax commission may direct.

Section 1087m-25. 1. On and after the first Monday in January, 1912, the office of county supervisor of assessment is hereby abolished.

2. The assessor of incomes shall on and after the first Monday of January, 1912, in addition to the duties and powers herein imposed and conferred upon him, perform all the duties and possess all the powers heretofore imposed and conferred by law upon the said county supervisor of assessment. The assessor of incomes shall be under the direction and control of the state tax commission, and shall make such reports to the commission, to the county board of review and the county board of supervisors, and perform such other duties as the commission shall direct.

Section 1087m-26. Any person who shall have paid a tax upon his personal property during any year shall be permitted to present the receipt therefor, to and have the same accepted by, the tax collector to its full amount in the payment of taxes due upon the income of such person during said year. Any bank which has paid taxes during any year upon its shares assessed to the individual stockholders thereof shall be entitled, under the provisions of this section, to present the receipt therefor, and have the same accepted by the tax collector to its full amount in the payment of taxes due upon the income of such bank during said year.

Section 1087m-27. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to affect the assessment or collection of taxes assessed in the year 1911 or prior thereto, under present laws, nor to limit the power of assessors and boards of review to correcting assessment rolls, placing omitted property thereon, and reassessing property whenever such correction, insertion of omitted property, or reassessment might be made under the laws as they now exist.

Section 1087m-28. The state tax commission is hereby empowered to make such rules and regulations as it shall deem necessary in order to carry out foregoing provisions.

Section 1087m-29. The state tax commission is hereby authorized to employ such clerks and specialists as are necessary to carry into effective operation this act.

Section 1087m-30. There is hereby appropriated from the general fund of the state, out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, a sum sufficient to carry out the provisions of this act.

Section 2. Section 1036 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 1036. The term "personal property," as used in this title, shall be construed to mean and include toll bridges, saw logs, timber and lumber, either upon land or afloat; steam boats, ships and other vessels, whether at home or abroad; buildings upon leased lands, if such buildings have not been included in the assessment of the land on which they are erected; ferry boats, including the cut; and stored for use, sale or shipment; and all goods, wares, merchandise, chattels, . . . of every nature or description, having any real or marketable value, and not included in the term "real property," as above defined.

Section 3. Subsection 10 of section 1038 of the statutes is amended to read: 10. All moneys, all . . . debts due to or become due to any person, and all stocks and bonds not otherwise specially provided for. . . . Nothing herein shall be construed to exempt from taxation any mortgagee's interest in real estate.

Section 4. Subsection 10a, of section 1038 of the statutes is repealed.

Section 5. Subsection 11, of section 1038, of the statutes is amended to read: (Section 1038). 11. Wearing apparel, including personal ornaments and jewelry habitually worn, family portraits, private libraries not exceeding in value $200, kitchen and other household furniture and furnishings, . . . one piano, organ or melodeon and other musical instruments, . . . and also growing crops, including grain and other medicinal plants.

Section 6. Subdivision (a) of subsection 11a, of section 1038, of the statutes is amended to read: (Section 1038, 11a). (a) The tools of a mechanic kept and used in his trade and farm, orchard and garden machinery, implements and tools . . . actually used in the operation of any farm, orchard or garden.

Section 7. Subdivision (h) of subsection 11a, of section 1038, of the statutes is amended to read: (Section 1038, 11a). (h) One watch carried by the owner.

Facts for Weak Women

LET'S TAKE CARE OF OUR OWN FLOOD VICTIMS

The Tribune wishes to express its complete sympathy with the movement looking toward substantial relief for the people of Black River Falls. As to the adequacy of what has already been done, suffice it to say that the contributions thus far are barely sufficient to defray the expense of a concrete wall to protect the city from further inundation.

We believe the failure to subscribe more liberally for the aid of the stricken city was due to the fact that an appeal for aid was disseminated upon a national scope. Had it been confined to the state it would, in our opinion, have brought better results. After the national plea went forth many La Crosse citizens remarked that the people of Black River Falls were carrying the thing too far, attempting to make their misfortune the excuse for a "gratification" while others, less drastic in their language, expressed the belief that the response to this national call would provide funds more than ample for the complete restoration of the loss of our fellow townspeople.

That this idea had a bad effect is, it would seem, shown by the fact that Wisconsin cities did not respond with their usual liberality. Milwaukee, for example, sent much more money to the relief of San Francisco and of Martinique, than it did to the aid of Black River Falls. We believe, could the figures be secured and comparisons drawn, that this condition would be found to be true in relation to almost every city in the state.

In our opinion Governor McGovern will make no error if he shall use the good offices of the state in every way to further the new relief movement, nor do we believe the taxpayers of Wisconsin will complain if the administration shall decide to draw upon the resources of the state with sufficient liberality to place our unfortunate neighbors upon their feet under conditions assuring them, with proper thrift and aggression, a fair chance to rebuild their city and restore their losses.

FACTS WILL TELL ANDERSON STORY

The Tribune yesterday published a letter from Hon. Sydney Anderson, congressman from the First Minnesota district, in which the latter declares positively that he has fulfilled his party pledges and that he will base his request for a re-nomination upon the record that he has made.

An interesting feature of the letter was the statement of Mr. Anderson that the "Progressive News" paper League, which recently passed resolutions condemning him, is in fact the nucleus of a standpoint organization.

This is a matter subject to verification, and The Tribune proposes to give its Minnesota readers the facts. We will secure and publish the names of those who attended the meeting, and the fact as to whether the paper each represents supported or opposed Mr. Anderson prior to his nomination two years ago; also whether any of them or relatives of any of them hold or have held appointive office by grace of James A. Tawney. These facts will be eloquent—they will tell the whole story.

SEES LA FOLLETTE AS A CONSERVATIVE

In the current issue of the American Magazine there appeared a letter from a young man styling himself a "conservative," relating the reasons which inspired him to give up his opposition to Senator La Follette and to become an ardent supporter of the senator. The writer declares that he has "come to the conclusion that he (Senator La Follette) has followed precisely the course that any good, substantial and genuine conservative should follow." "Here is one thing I like especially," said the contributor. "He didn't ride into office on the machine, then turn 'reform' and 'throw down' the good fellows in the machine who carried him in. Nobody can accuse him of that sort of disloyalty, which is a form of disloyalty that has been indulged in by a great many 'reformers.' No, he simply went out to farmers by the thousand and asked them personally to vote for him. When he got into office he worked hard and faithfully at the job, depending on his employers, the people, to keep him at the job, because he had served their interests well. I declare that I cannot see wherein that wanders from the teaching of any sound business institution. It is the kind of advice I have always had pounded into me by business men and everybody else."

WANT HEARING QUICK

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 30.—Officials of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron workers conferred with a view of obtaining an earlier hearing of the charges against Robert J. Foster in connection with his clash with President Frank M. Ryan of the Iron workers. Foster, who is a detective for the National Erectors' association, is under arrest on five charges, the chief accusation being that he drew a revolver with intent to kill.

Anyway, the man who yows trouble has no kick coming if he fails to get his money's worth.

THE CARPET FROM BAGDAD

Copyright 1911—The Bobbs-Merrill Co.

"No vintage tonight, my boy; no long, fat Havana, either. A bottle of stout and a few rags of plug cut; that's the pace we'll travel this evening. The United Romance and Adventure Company is not listed at present. If it was, I'd sell a few shares on my own hook. The kind Lord knows that I've stock enough and to spare." He laughed again, but without the leaven of humor. "When the fool-killer snatches up the last fool, let rogues look to themselves; and fools are getting scarcer every day."

"Percival Algernon! O sage of poets! I wonder, does he wear high collars and spats, or has she plumed him accurately? She is generally right. But a man changes some in seven years! I'm an authority when it comes to that. Look what's happened to me in seven years! First, Horace, we shall dine, then we'll smoke our pipe in the billiard-room, then we'll softly approach Percival Algernon and introduce him to Sinbad. This independent excursion to Bagdad was a stroke on my part; it will work into the general plan as smoothly as if it had been grooved for the part. Sinbad, I might just as well have assumed that name: Horace Sinbad, sounds well and looks well." He mused in silence, his hand gently rubbing his chin; for he did possess the trick of talking aloud, in a low monotone, a habit acquired during periods of loneliness, when the sound of his own voice had succeeded in steadying his tottering mind.

What a woman, what a wife, she would have been to the right man! Odd thing, a man can do almost anything but direct his affections; they must be drawn. She was not for him; nay, not even on a desert isle. Doubtless he was a fool. In time she would have made him a rich man. Alack! It was always the one we pursued that we loved and never the one that pursued us.

"I'm afraid of her; and there you are. There isn't a man living who has gone back of that Mona Lisa smile of hers. If she was the last woman and I was the last man, I don't say." He hunted for a cigarette, but failed to find one. "Almost at the bottom, boy; the winter of our discontent, and no sun of York to make it glorious. Twenty-four hundred at cards, and to lose it like a tyrant! Wallace has taught me all he knows, but I'm a booby. Twenty-four hundred firm's money. It's a falling of mine, the firm's money. But, damn it all, I can't cheat a man at cards; I'd rather cut his throat."

He found his pipe, and a careful search of the corners of his coat-pockets revealed a meager pipeful of tobacco. He picked out the little balls of wool, the ground coffee, the cloves, and pushed the charge home into the crusted bowl of his briar.

"To the devil with economy! A pint of burgundy and a perfect if they hale us to jail for it. I'm dead tired. I've seen three corners in hell in the past two months. I'm going as far as four sovereigns will take me. . . . Fortune Chedsoye. His blue eyes became less hard and his mouth less defiant. 'I repeat, the heart should be nothing but a pump. Otherwise it gets in the way, becomes an obstruction, a bottomless pit. Will-power, that's the ticket. I can face a lion without an extra beat, I can face the various countenances of death without an additional flutter; and yet, here's a girl who, when I see her or think of her, sends the pulse soaring from seventeen up to

ENERGY BOILED DOWN

Plenty of Power and Not a Grain of It Goes to Waste

"Condensed Energy Reaches its Limit," is a newspaper headline that might fitly apply to Ozomulsion. The energy to overwhelm tuberculosis germs so that their progress in the lungs is stopped. The energy to store up force for a time of need, like an attack of cold or such severe strain of work as undermines the strength.

The energy of clean, rich blood. The energy for work or play, that comes with bountiful nourishment.

That is Ozomulsion-energy. And it is CONDENSED energy. Everything in Ozomulsion is an energizer.

Chief of all is the Norway Gold Medal Cod Liver Oil, pure, fresh, wholesome, the richest product of the northern seas.

Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda and chemically pure Glycerine add to the general fund of energy.

For all who are thin, pale, weak, worn or wasted, this is the most important news in the paper.

Sample Bottle Free by Mail

That those who are seeking health and strength for themselves, children, relatives or friends may experience the life-giving properties of this exclusive Norway gold medal ozonized cod liver oil medicinal food emulsion—as well as to know Ozomulsion superiority—in being most palatable and easy to take—a generous 2-oz. bottle will be sent by mail to those who send addresses by postcard or letter to Ozomulsion, 545 Pearl St., N. ## PRESIDENTIAL ASPIRANT IN ACTIVE CAMPAIGN

SENATOR CUMMINS

DES MOINES, Iowa.—The presidential aspirations of Senator Albert Baird Cummins, insurgent republican of Iowa, are being fostered by a coterie of friends and an active campaign is being waged in his behalf. Senator Cummins, on the 15th of next month, will celebrate his 62nd birthday. His career from the day of his birth, in a little town near Carmichael, Penn., to the honorable position he now holds in the United States senate, has been one of continual triumph and masterful leadership. He was educated in the public schools and after three years in Waynesburg, Penn., College, he started upon his professional career as a lawyer. He soon entered public life, and was made a member of the house of representatives of the 22nd general assembly of Iowa. In 1896 he was a republican national committeeman from his state and was made governor in 1902. This capacity he filled capably and successfully until elected to the United States senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. H. B. Allison. He was re-elected to the U. S. senate January 19, 1909.

eighty-four. Bad business; bad sides, it's so infernally unfashionable. It's hard work for a man to keep his balance 'twixt the devil and the deep, blue sea; Gioconda on one side and Fortune on the other. Gioconda throws open windows and doors at my approach; but Fortune locks and bars hers, nor knocks at mine. That's the way it always goes.

"If a man could only go back ten years and take a new start. Ast!" bailing his fist at the reflection in the mirror. "Snivel and whine over the bed of your own making. You had your opportunity, but you listened to the popping of champagne-corks, the mutter of cards, the insane drivel of chorus ladies. You had a decent college record, too. Bah! What a guileless fool you were! You ran on, didn't you, till you found your neck in the loop at the end of the rope? And perhaps that soft-footed, estimable brother of yours didn't yank it taut as a hangman's? You heard the codicil; into one ear and out the other. Even then you had your chance; patience for two short years, and a million. No, a thousand times no. You knew what you were about, empty-headed fool! And today, two pennies for a dead man's eyes."

He dropped his fist dejectedly. Where had the first step begun? And where would be the last? In some drab corner, possibly; drink, morphine, or starvation; he'd never have the courage to finish it with a bullet. He was terribly bitter. Everything worth while seemed to have slipped through his fingers. His pleasure-loving fingers. "Come, come, Horace," buck up. Still the ruby kindles in the vine. No turning back now. We'll go on till we come bang! against the wall. There may be some good bouts between here and there. I wonder what Gioconda would say if she knew why I was so eager for this game?"

He went down to dinner, and they gave him a table in an obscure corner, as a subtle reminder that his style was passe. He didn't care; he was hungry and thirsty. He could see nearly every one, even if only a few could see him. This was somewhat to his advantage. He endeavored to pick out Percival Algernon; but there were too many high collars, too many monocles. So he contented himself with a mild philosophical observance of the scene. The murmur of voices, rising as the wall of the violins sank, sinking as the wall rose; the tinkle of glass and china, the silver and linen, the pretty women in their rustling gowns, the delicate perfumes; the flash of an arm, the glint of a polished shoulder; this was the essence of life he coveted. He smiled at the thought and the sure knowledge that he was not the only wolf in the fold. Ay, and who among these dainty Red Riding Hoods might be fooled by a vulpine grandmother? Truth, when a fellow winnowed it all down to a handful, there were only fools and rogues. If one was a fool, the rogue got you, and he in turn devoured himself.

HARMON STRONG IN SOUTH DAKOTA

PIERRE, S. D., Jan. 30.—On the eve of the state democratic meeting here, indications are that the old-time republicans who left that party and allied themselves with democrats on account of the fact that the republican party was too conservative to suit them, have reversed their attitude, and will be pushing the claims of Harmon for the presidential nomination, on the ground that other democratic aspirants are too radical.

SURPRISED DOCTOR

Illustrating the Effect of Food

The remarkable adaptability of Grape-Nuts food to stomachs so disordered that they will reject everything else, is illustrated by the case of a woman in Racine, Wis.

"Two years ago," she says, "I was attacked by a stomach trouble so serious that for a long time I could not take much of any sort of food. Even the various kinds prescribed by the doctor produced most acute pain. 'We then got some Grape-Nuts food, and you can imagine my surprise and delight when I found that I could eat it with a relish and without the slightest distress.

"When the doctor heard of it he told me to take several small portions each day, because he feared I would grow tired of it as I had of all other food.

"But to his surprise, (and that of everybody else), I did not tire of Grape-Nuts, and became better day by day, till, after some weeks, my stomach entirely recovered and I was able to eat anything my appetite craved.

"My nerves, which had become so weakened that I feared I would become insane, were also restored by the Grape-Nuts food in connection with Postum which has become our table beverage. I appreciate most gratefully and thankfully the good that your food preparations have done me, and shall be glad to answer any letters inquiring as to my experience." Names given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

Quips and Cranks and Wanton Wiles

The Fate of the Candidates
Ten little candidates,
Standing in a line.
One was found to have written a careless letter in the days of his youth,
And then there were nine.

Nine little candidates,
Dignified, sedate,
One made a fool remark about the annexation of Canada,
And then there were eight.

Eight little candidates—
Sturdy men, by heaven.
One was charged with having worn spats when he was a college student,
And then there were seven.

Seven little candidates,
Playing politics.
One was said to be taking advice from certain undesirable citizens in Wall street,
And then there were six.

Six little candidates,
Active and alive;
One drank a cocktail and strangled on the cherry,
And then there were five.

Five little candidates
Letting out a roar.
One was accused of perpetrating the pompadour,
And then there were four.

Four little candidates,
Running lustily.
One tripped over Schedule K,
And then there were three.

Three little candidates,
Noble men and true.
One became president of the Ananias club,
And then there were two.

Two little candidates,
Both upon the run.
One said he wasn't a candidate,
And the fool public took his word for it,
And then there was one.

One little candidate,
All the rest rejected.
Somebody had to be elected to fill the gosh darned job,
And so he was elected.

Day vs. Week
A well known advocate of optimism who says that the dark covering of every cloud is but a protection for the silver lining, recently told the following story in illustration of his theoretical happiness.

"A young lady of a Wisconsin village married a young man named Day. There would have been little cause for comment, had the bride not been named Week. The grumblers said that 'it was a wanton waste of time; a Week had been lost to make a Day.

"The true optimist, however, could not have failed to foresee the bright prospect. Why, the problem is simple enough—in a few years there'll be enough little Days running around to make up for the lost Week!"—Milwaukee Free Press.

Taking it Out in Trade
The proprietor of a Turkish bath establishment in Milwaukee was much taken by the physical perfection of a young man he saw in a butcher's shop. After minute survey of the huge muscles of the young man, the Turkish bath proprietor offered him a position as rubber in his establishment. "I'll give you more than you're getting here," said he. "What does this man pay you?"

"Ten dollars a week and my week's meat," said the butcher's employee.

"What is the meat worth?" "About $4."

The Turkish bath man did some rapid figuring. "Look here," said he finally, "I'll tell you what I'll do. I'll give you $10 and $5 worth of baths weekly. That'll be a dollar more than you get from the butcher."—Lippincott's.

Gave it Up
The tradesman had rendered his bill, waited a month, and then wrote: "Please, sir, I want my bill."

Back came the bill, with these words: "Certainly. Here it is."

The bill was returned, and in a month the tradesman again wrote: "Kindly send me the amount of my bill."

And the answer came promptly and politely: "Certainly. It is £31, 15s, 9d."

The third month the tradesman again wrote: "Will you send me a check for the amount of my bill?"

The answer came, with a blank, unsigned check: "Certainly. Here is a check. I have kept the amount of your bill."

The fourth month the tradesman wrote: "I want my bill paid."

And the answer came back: "So do I."

Then the tradesman gave it up.—London Tit-Bits.

Out of the Mouths of Babies

"How old is your grandpa, Harold?" asked a visitor of a bright five year old.

"Bout a thousand, I guess," was the reply. "He's been around here ever since I can 'member."

"Mamma, is everybody made out of dust?"

"So we are taught, dear."

"Well, I was born in January, and there ain't no dust then."

Willie's mother had been telling his father about the little boy's misbehavior during the day.

"Mamma," said Willie, "you have the baddest memory I ever saw."

"Why do you think so?" she asked.

"Cause," was the reply, "you al-

PORTERS ARRESTED FOR WORKING GRAFT

DULUTH, Minn., Jan. 30.—The arrest of several Great Northern porters Saturday night reveals a huge graft worked on the railroads and the traveling public. Detectives have been watching operations of porters for some time, with the result that during the past few years hundreds of the negro employes have been discharged. Details of the charges brought against the Great Northern porters were unobtainable in Duluth today. Fred A. Hills, northern passenger agent of the Great Northern, not having been informed on the matter.

Porters are said to have defrauded the western roads of a vast sum during the past year. Their practice has been to substitute their own liquors, cigars and cigarettes for those of the company. Passengers give their orders to porters, who easily can draw from their private stock instead of going to the dining car.

Itch! Itch! Itch!

What long nerve-racking days of constant torture—what sleepless nights of terrible agony—Itch—Itch—itch, constant itch, until it seemed that I must tear off my very skin—then—

Instant relief—my skin cooled soothed and healed!

The very first drops of D. D. D. Prescription for Eczema stopped that awful itch instantly: yes, the very moment D. D. D. touched the burning skin the torture ceased. A 25c bottle proves it.

D. D. D. has been known for years as the only absolutely reliable eczema remedy, for it washes away the disease germs and leaves the skin as clear and healthy as that of a child.

All other druggists have D. D. D. Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big profit substitute.

But if you come to our store, we are so certain of what D. D. D. will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee:—If you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE, it costs you not a cent.

POEHLING'S

FAMOUS RIVER PILOT IS DEAD

WINONA, Minn., Jan. 30.—Captain Peter J. Schneider, 82 years old, perhaps the most widely known of early day pilots of steamers on the Mississippi river, died in this city Sunday. Death followed a second stroke of apoplexy suffered three days ago and since which time he had been unconscious.

Over half a century of Captain Schneider's life was spent on the Mississippi. It had been said of him that he knew the river, its treacherous currents and wandering course better than any other man.

A Hero in a Lighthouse

For years J. S. Donahue, So. Haven, Mich., a civil war captain, as a lighthousekeeper, averted awful wrecks, but a queer fact is, he might have been a wreck himself, if Electric Bitters had not prevented. "They cured me of kidney trouble and chills," he writes, "after I had taken other so called cures for years, without benefit and they also improved my sight. Now, at seventy, I am feeling fine." For dyspepsia, indigestion, all stomach, liver and kidney troubles, they're without equal. Try them. Only 50 cts. at O. T. Erhart.

When the average man comes to turn over a new leaf he finds a carbon copy of the old one.

SHOEMEN DICKER TO GET MERCY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—A delegation of New England shoe manufacturers called at the department of justice yesterday, conferred with Assistant Attorney General Fowler regarding the federal suit against the United Shoe Machinery company. It is understood that this is the first of a number of delegations of shoe men who will come to protest against the suit on a basis of compromise which trades the quashing of the criminal indictment for a confession of judgment in the civil case and voluntary dissolution.

NINE STATES WILL APPEAL TO BOARD

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Regardless of the decision reached by George M. Brown, chief examiner for the interstate commerce commission in the hearing now in progress here of protests against the western freight classification, representatives of nine western states will appeal direct to the interstate commerce commission at Washington for a hearing of protests before the classification is put into effect.

Mr. J. P. Morgah is going to Egypt where the Sphinx will then have a formidable rival.

ED. SKOGLUND IS FATALLY INJURED

North Side Conductor Expected to Die as Result of Accident at New Lisbon

Ed. Skoglund, conductor on freight train No. 18, La Crosse division of the C. M. & St. Paul railroad, received injuries this morning which it is expected will prove fatal. According to the message he fell from the engine at New Lisbon and had both his legs and arms cut off and his head badly crushed.

Details of how the accident occurred have not reached the North side. He was removed to the hospital at Tomah.

Mr. Skoglund has been working nights in the North side yards for some time, but he left this morning for Portage, his home, where he was expecting to start out with his train, No. 18. He was well known to North side people.

Mr. Skoglund was about 28 years old and he had been in the employ of the C. M. & St. P. railroad company for several years. Railroad men in the city were shocked at the news of the accident.

LOAN AND BUILDING ASSOCIATION ELECTS

The election of the board of directors was the principal business at the meeting of the La Crosse Mutual Loan and Building association at the office of Henry Niebuhr, 328 Pearl street, last night. The following were elected on the board: J. Schneeberger, Jr., Wm. Luening, Joseph J. Frisch, Charles Preutz, Jr., Nic Haerter, Fred Dittman, C. F. Runkel, Carl Kurtenacker, Frank R. Schwalbe, William Torrance, George H. Gordon, Otto Bosshard, G. A. Keller, F. W. Techmer, and Henry Niebuhr.

The new board of directors will convene next Friday evening, when the officers for the year will be elected.

JUDGE LOCHREN FUNERAL TOMORROW

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 30.—Funeral services for Judge William Lochren, eminent jurist, who died Saturday at his home, 422 Tenth avenue southeast, Minneapolis, will take place tomorrow afternoon from the late residence.

A Girl's Wild Midnight Ride

To warn people of a fearful forest fire in the Catskills a young girl rode horseback at midnight and saved many lives. Her deed was glorious but lives are often saved by Dr. King's New Discovery in curing lung trouble, coughs and colds, which might have ended in consumption or pneumonia. "It cured me of a dreadful cough and lung disease," writes W. R. Patterson, Wellington, Tex., "after four in our family had died with consumption, and I gained 87 pounds." Nothing so sure and safe for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by O. T. Erhart.

HERE IS A REAL DYSPEPSIA CURE

Pape's Diapepsin settles upset Stomachs and ends Indigestion in five minutes

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from Indigestion, Dyspepsia or out-of-order Stomach is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking some Diapepsin.

If your Stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a re-enforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach.

People with weak Stomachs should take a little Diapepsin occasionally, and there will be no more Indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, Sour risings, Gas on Stomach or Belching of undigested food, Headaches, Dizziness or Sick Stomach, and, besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms, resulting from a sour, out-of-order stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved in five minutes after taking a little Diapepsin.

Go to your druggist and get a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

By winning two of three games from the Combinations last night, the Nelsons crept up to within three games of the lead in the Commercial Bowling league and the race for the championship was made even closer than before.

The Painters, league leaders, and the Nelsons, who are in second place, will meet Thursday evening in three games which will have much to do with the question of who shall lead the league. On that account of the importance attached to the results of these matches they will be hard fought as the Nelsons are determined to catch up with the Painters while the leaders are just as determined to increase their lead over their nearest rivals for the championship. If the Nelsons win all three of the games they will be tied with the Painters, while Painters will retain the lead if they only win one of the matches.

Bob Roth of the Nelsons, rolled some excellent games last night, the records showing that he made high score with a mark of .203 in the second game while his records of .201 and .195 were also at the head of the list. In only the first match could the Combination come out victorious and they won that game by nineteen pins while the Nelsons won the other two games by good margins. The scores:

	1st	2nd	3rd
Nelsons .....	183	162	150
Gilbert .....	179	194	17

Tonight the Painters, who are leading the Commercial league, go to Bangor where they will bowl a return match with the Union Star club of that town which team was beaten in five straight games when the teams met in this city. The games tonight promise to be good ones as the Bangor team is now playing a good game. However, the Painters expect to win and to show their superiority over the out of town team by defeating them decisively.

OPERA SPECIAL GOES TO ST. PAUL

The Grand Opra Special train, on which was the grand opera company which will play at the auditorium in St. Paul this week, passed through the city on the C. B. & Q. railroad Sunday on its way to the Twin Cities.

Twenty cars made up the special train, while 350 people were traveling from Chicago, where they had just finished an engagement. The train went through the city ahead of No. 53 about noon Sunday and after stopping here for a short time they proceeded to St. Paul, where they were due to arrive at about 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Three sections made up the train.

The train included dining, parlor, observation cars and every convenience was provided for the comfort of the troupe. A brief stop was made at Grand Crossing, following which the company went to the Twin Cities.

By the way has anybody a list of all the patriots who are thinking of running for vice president?

Some men are so busy scheming about the future that they don't get any profit out of the present.

A Remedy No Family Should Do Without

No matter how healthy a human being may be it is safe to say that some months are passed without some obstruction of the bowels, in other words, constipation, even if only temporary. The bloating, the dull feeling may start after the evening meal. If a laxative is not taken that night it is certain that sleep will not be sound, and you will awaken unrefreshed.

Hence, it is important for you and for all the members of your family that a good, reliable laxative be always kept in the house for just such emergency. It is sure to be needed, and when needed you want it at hand. No family that is careful of its health can do without such a remedy. But the question of which remedy to have on hand is also of vast importance.

The laxative most highly recommended by the majority of intelligent Americans as being best for babies and grownups is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

MILLER-LITTLE BOUT PLANNED

Champion Welterweight Wrestler Anxious to Stage Match at the Majestic

C. Woods, manager of Walter Miller, the champion welterweight wrestler, was in the city yesterday trying to arrange for a wrestling match with Jack Little, the wrestler who was training here for a time and who is now touring Iowa.

According to the present plans the match will be staged at the Majestic theater on February 9.

Little and his training partner are expected to arrive in La Crosse some time today when final arrangements for the match will be completed. This would prove a good match as both men are expert wrestlers and fans in La Crosse would have an opportunity to see a good bout. It is practically certain the match will be held on February 9 and all the details will doubtless be arranged when Little reaches La Crosse.

LEAP YEAR PARTY SUFFRAGET METHOD

The ladies of the F. R. A. will entertain the men of the order, after the meeting Feb. 1, by a leap year party and will demonstrate twentieth century ideas of the new woman of the future. The ladies will have entire charge of the affair and the men will immediately upon entering the hall be muzzled and halter broke by the most humane methods. The extraordinary vicious kind of man will be put in a straight jacket and suspended on the wall, to flirt with the picture.

Any man who has the nerve to break the rules of the "Ladies' Malignant assassination" will be hobbled in Parisian style and made to run the gauntlet of the hat pin brigade. A light lunch (electric mostly) will be served by the ladies and five minutes will be allowed for rag chewing between the pitching of doughnuts, and any man who strikes out will be given a death certificate and declared a martyr to twentieth century culinary methods. A home run with one of these doughnuts will entitle such man to a seat in congress without further discussion. Humble and docile men who do not talk back will be allowed to attend the Pink Tea club and indulge in Angel Sniffles, with Mr. U. R. Henpeck, the purpose of said club being to increase facilities for keeping posted on current neighborly events.

Meats—Cold shoulder, with shivers; a la Spare ribs (Eve style); hot tongue, with gossip; condensed hash, without haircuts.

Vegetables—Concentrated odor of onions; garden hose (macaroni ed).

Cakes—Shirred muffins; basted pancakes; cream toupees with hair dye.

Dessert—Peroxide puffs, with freckles; yeastless bread (safety razored); hair rolls with jelly.

Mum's extra quietus, served with a rolling pin or mop.

Cheeses—A la Limburger (200 horse power); pompador head cheese.

Don't waste time trying to kill two birds with one stone; stones are more plentiful than birds.

Probably a young man would enjoy kissing a girl even if it was compulsory.

No matter what a man may be, some woman is sure to think he's all right.

That Indiana woman's campaign against silk stockings hasn't a foot to stand on.

PLEASE TEACHER, MAY I HAVE MY CUM IT BELONGS TO MY MOTHER?

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are the best blood medicine in the world. I was almost a cripple with rheumatism as a result of exposure while working in a saw mill and suffered for four years. The rheumatism was in my hands, arms and shoulders. My hands would swell to an abnormal size and the pain in my fingers and wrists was so intense that I would have to cry. I was unable to use my hands even to comb my hair. I was practically helpless. The pains were sharp and knife-like. During the latter part of my sickness my heart was affected. I was treated by several doctors and was given treatment with electricity. They all thought they could cure me but, although I was under the care of a doctor for the greater part of four years, I received but little help. A neighbor urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People as they had cured her of rheumatism. I finally did so and was cured after a thorough treatment with them. The pills were the first thing that had ever done me any good and my cure is permanent.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are the blood's greatest aid in overcoming rheumatism, headaches, anemia, chlorosis, and after-effects of the grip and fevers.

A valuable booklet, "Diseases of the Blood," will be sent upon request.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes, $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Relief From Your Rheumatism Right Now!

You can have relief from those sharp, torturing pains of Rheumatism right now!

Go, or send someone to the nearest druggist. Insist on MUSTEROLE.

Don't accept anything else. It is a clean, white ointment—not a liniment—not a plaster—not a roll.

It is better than the old-fashioned mustard plaster—AND IT DOES NOT BLISTER THE TENDEREST SKIN!

It comes in a white jar with the MUSTEROLE trade-mark. Look for it.

Rub MUSTEROLE on briskly where the pain is. Simply use the tips of the fingers or the palm of the hand.

Note the quick and blessed relief it brings!

First the warm, comfortable feeling of the mustard—then a delicious soothing effect—and the pain is gone!

You don't have to bind on a cloth. MUSTEROLE is so penetrating that it goes right through the pores of the skin at once.

MUSTEROLE is the pure oil of the highest grade of mustard so combined with other ingredients that it has all the virtues of the old-fashioned mustard plaster—and more—without any of the blistering effects.

It is the family remedy, centuries old, in Twentieth Century form.

In every case where plasters, poultices or liniment are used for colds, aches and pains, MUSTEROLE is better.

It relieves everything that grandmother's mustard plaster relieved—and you remember how many aches and pains that used to drive away!

There is nothing like MUSTEROLE for Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Congestion, Pleurisy, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chilblains, Frosted Feet, Colds of the Chest (it prevents Pneumonia).

MUSTEROLE is for sale by leading druggists everywhere.

Many of these display the MUSTEROLE sign (shown below) in their windows.

MUSTEROLE comes in jars of two sizes, 25c and 50c. Accept no substitute.</

EFFECTS OF DRINKING TEA

Consumer of High Quality Teas Runs Least Risk of Digestive Disturbance.

The Lancet publishes a concluding article upon tea which sums up the results of an investigation into the subject under the title of "The Chemistry, Physiology and Esthetics of a Cup of Tea."

The suggestion that an infusion of good tea consists chiefly of caffeine tannate is confirmed. It is pointed out that when caffeine and tannin are in a state of combination, neither being in the free state, the harmful astringent qualities of the tannin disappear and the bitter taste of free caffeine is not perceptible.

The teas of high quality yield as a rule a simple infusion of caffeine tan-nate, not of caffeine or of tannin. Such teas must be regarded as the most desirable from a physiological point of view. It is interesting to find that as a rule the expert taster picks out these teas as teas of high quality.

Good teas, in short, according to this inquiry, are those which on a five minute infusion yield only caffeine in the form of caffeine tannate to the infusion and bad or indifferent teas are those which yield on infusion a tea
containing, in addition to caffeine tan-nate, either caffeine or tannin, but especially tannin, in excess. A good tea may be made a bad tea, but a bad
tea can not be made a good tea except perhaps by very skillful blending.

Excessive infusion will spoil a good tea, but even a short infusion of a bad tea may be as objectionable as an excessive infusion of a good tea.

On physiological grounds, therefore,
the consumer of high quality teas runs
less risk of digestive disturbance pro-

CARD OF THANKS.

For the many kindnesses and remembrances, both spiritual and temporal, which were shown to our dear Sister Matilda during her long and tedious illness, we to whom she

STOPS YOUR HAIR FALLING OUT AND DISSOLVES DANDRUFF AT ONCE

Your hair appears soft, lustrous, fluffy and abundant
after using a little Danderine.

What causes Dandruff, itchy scalp and falling hair? Who Cares—so long as Danderine overcomes this—
and it does, and quickly too—it does more, it grows hair and we can prove it.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you
most, will be after a few weeks' use,
when you will actually see new hair,
fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting all over the scalp.

SPARE THE TIME TO LAUGH

Even in Depressing Circumstances It Is Man's Duty to Strive to Be Cheerful.

It is the duty of mankind, even in depressing circumstances, to strive to be cheerful. It is the general belief that if a man is not naturally light-hearted, he cannot make himself so.

Yet this is far from being the case,
and there is many a man who is at present a weary burden to his relatives, miserable through the carking care of some bodily ailment perhaps,
or some worldly misfortune, who, if he had grown up with the idea that to be cheerful in all circumstances was one of the first duties of life, might still see a pleasant enough world round him.

The worries of a morose person will shorten his days, and the general justice of nature's arrangements provides that his early departure should entail no long regrets.

On the other hand, the man who can laugh keeps his health. To the perfectly healthy laughter comes often. Too commonly, though, as childhood is left behind, the habit falls, and a half smile is the most that visits the thought-lined mouth of a modern man or woman. People become more and more burdened with the accumulation of knowledge and with the weighty responsibilities of life, but they should still spare time to laugh.

No doubt there are cheerful givers
—but did you ever see one?

Nature's Gentle Hand.

Nature gives to every time and season some beauties of its own; and from morning to night, as from the cradle to the grave, is but a succesion of changes so gentle and easy
that we scarcely mark their progress.

HOGAN READY TO FIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 30.— One Round Hogan wound up his training here today for his bout on Wednesday with Harlem Tommy Murphy. Murphy completed his training yesterday. It is believed by fans that the Harlem scrapper is relying on his ring generalship to win the battle and does not expect to score a knockout.

AWAY GOES CATARRH AND BAD COLDS

Ely's Cream Balm Cures
Sore Nose and Throat, Catarrhal Headaches
and Colds.

No matter how bad your catarrh,
how much your head aches, or how miserable you are with a cold in the head, nostrils stopped up, hawking, spitting, bad breath, you always get immediate relief by using Ely's Cream Balm.

Don't let your entire system be poisoned by the deadly catarrh germ
which, sooner or later, causes complete decay of bone and tissue. The continual dropping of the germ infected discharge down the throat leads to catarrh of the stomach and bowels.

Get a 50 cent bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist today, and you will get relief a few minutes after using it. Your headache and cold will vanish, and in a short time you will be completely rid of catarrh.
Give it to the children for colds and croup. It is perfectly harmless.

ARE YOU FREE —FROM—

Headaches, Colds, Indigestion, Pains, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Dizziness? If you are not, the most effective, prompt and pleasant method of getting rid of them is to take, now and then, a desertspoonful of the ever refreshing and truly beneficial laxative remedy—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna. It is well known throughout the world
as the best of family laxative remedies, because it acts so gently and strengthens naturally without irritating the system in any way.

To get its beneficial effects it is always necessary to buy the genuine, manufactured by the California
Fig Syrup Co., bearing the name of the Company, plainly printed on the front of every package.

PROBE IN INDIAN FRAUD CONTINUED

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Jan. 30.— Charges were made by the government yesterday in the investigation of the charge of fraud at the White Earth reservation by the congressional sub-committee that Gus Beaulieu, leader of the mixed bloods, had been ordered from the reservation,
that the order never had been revocated and that therefore Beaulieu could not be recognized as a legal resident of the reservation. If sustained, the charge practically would exclude Beaulieu from consideration at the hearing.

W. D. Andrews of Minneapolis testified that he was interested in the Clapp amendment of 1906 as he wished to purchase land under the act. He declared that enormous rates of interest were taken from the Indians by a Mahanomen bank, sometimes amounting to 2,400 per cent, by a first mortgage and a second commission mortgage.

MEN IN DEMAND IN NORTHERN WOODS

DULUTH, Minn., Jan. 30.—The north woods are ringing with the clatter of rush operations in getting out timber, and an appeal has been sent down for 1,800 to 2,000 additional men to help catch up with the work.

The past month of extreme cold
has had much to do with this condition, operations having been restricted.

A prominent local lumberman
stated that the lumber cut statistics
for his district will run a little less than 550,000,000 feet, a few million feet less than last season. The supply of low grade is said to be nearly all sold.

FANS WILL WATCH EXPENSIVE PLAYERS

Four baseball players who cost $50,000 will be watched with interest this year and may or may not prove a good investment. They include Marty O'Toole, the Pittsburgh pitcher, who cost $22,500; Bill Kelley, his battery mate, who brought $6,500; Lefty Russell, purchased by Connie Mack for $14,000 two years ago, and Russell Blackburne, who put a dent of $10,000 in Comiskey's bank roll.

WHAT EVERY WOMAN KNOWS

No woman can decorate her head
with false hair in the shape of rats,
puffs, switches and transformations
and make it appear natural. Hair growing on the scalp it adorns is the only kind that always looks right.
There is a grace and beauty in natural hair which is not to be mistaken.
Newbro's Herpicide permits the luxuriant growth of beautiful hair. It kills the dandruff germ, preserves
the hair and gives it the life and brightness of true hair health.

Every woman may have beautiful,
glorious hair growing on her own head. There is no secret about it—use Newbro's Herpicide.

Send 10c in postage for sample and book on the Care of the Hair to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich.

One dollar size bottles are sold and guaranteed by all the leading druggists.

Applications may be obtained at the best barber shops and hair dressing parlors. Hoerschler Bros., Special Agents.

Constipation, if Neglected, Causes Serious Illness

Constipation, if neglected, leads to almost innumerable complications affecting the general health.

Many cases of typhoid fever,
appendicitis and
other severe diseases are trace-
able to prolonged clogging of the bowels. Regard-
the effects of constipation, C.
E. Ayers, 6 Sabin
St., Montpelier,
Vt., says:
"I was afflicted
with constipation
and biliousness for years, and at times became so bad I would become unconscious. I have been found in that condition many times.
Physicians did not seem to be able to do me any good. I would become weak and for days at a time could do no work. Not long ago I got a box of Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets, and after using them found I had never tried anything that acted in such a mild and effective manner. I believe I have at last found the remedy that suits my case."

Thousands of people are sufferers
from habitual constipation and while possibly realizing something of the danger of this condition, yet neglect too long to employ proper cure measures until serious illness often results. The advice of all physicians is, "keep your bowels
clean," and it's good advice.

Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are sold by all druggists, at 25 cents a box containing 25 doses. If not found satisfactory, your money is returned.

MENOMONIE ADOPTS COMMISSION FORM

MENOMONIE, Wis., Jan. 30.—
The commission form of government was adopted in a special election here yesterday by vote of 337 to 248. Mayor Mathews and business men generally favored the change, while many of the present officials, supported by the saloon element, opposed it.
Menomonee, with population
of about 5,000, is the smallest Wisconsin city thus far to adopt the new system.

DOYLE CASE IS REVERSED TODAY

Supreme Court at Madison Reverses Famous $12,000 Damage Judgment Against Car Co.

OTHER DECISIONS AFFIRMED

"Rights of Courtesy" Upheld in Case of Schmidt Against Administrator of the Estate

In the supreme court at Madison today the case of David Boyle against the La Crosse City Railway company was resumed and remanded to the circuit court for a new trial. The information from Madison does not state the reasons so that the exact condition of the case is not at present known among the local attorneys.

Doyle was a lineman employed by the street railway company. He fell from a pole in front of the power house in September, 1910. He claimed that he was knocked off by an electric shock and the company contended that he slipped off through his own carelessness. The jury in Judge Higbee's court gave him a verdict of $12,000. Neither his attorneys, Morris & Hartwell, nor those of the company, Woodward & Lees and George H. Gordon, could state today just what the next step in the litigation will be.

Rights of Courtesy Upheld Under a decision handed down by the supreme court this morning in a case from La Crosse the law is laid down that in event of death of a wife, her indebtedness contracted during life, together with the expenses of administration and funeral expenses, shall be paid before the husband is given his rights to the estate through what is known in law as rights by the courtesy.

The action was one brought by John Schmidt against the administrator of his wife's estate and the decision is the first ever handed down by the supreme court of Wisconsin and the third in the United States bearing on the question.

The wife's estate was being probated in Judge John Brindley's court when the husband, through Judge John A. Daniels, asked that the money value of his courtesy rights be turned over to him before the wife's bills were paid. The administrator, through Morris & Hartwell, resisted, but Judge Brindley held with the husband. Upon appeal by the administrator to Judge Higbee's court, the decision of Judge Brindley was reversed and the debts given priority. The supreme court holds that Judge Higbee was right.

Church Loses Suit The case of the Stanley Scandinavian Evangelical Lutheran church vs. the La Crosse Steel Roofing and Corrugating company was also reversed. The case involved a matter of about $300 which the church refused to pay the roofing company on the grounds that the roof did not come up to specifications. The company contended that the roof was built according to the specifications but that the church building was at fault. Sagging of the building was blamed for the damage to the roof.

Several cases from the Sixth judicial district were affirmed by the supreme court today, among which were the following:

Roy vs. the city of La Crosse; Schmidt vs. Raymond, administrator; Hauge vs. the La Crosse and Southeastern railroad company; Speltz vs. the La Crosse and Southeastern railroad company; and the state vs. Roughline and Clemenson.

The last two cases involved matters of land condemnation, the decision being against the railroad company in both cases. The case of Mrs. Flora Roy against the city was brought to recover damages as the result of a fall on a slippery sidewalk in which Mrs. Roy broke her leg. She was awarded a judgment of $1,200 against the city. The supreme court today upheld her suit.

WALSH WILL IS BROKEN

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—The will of John R. Walsh, the banker who died within a week after his release on parole from Leavenworth prison this winter, was refused probate by Judge Cutting here today on the ground that the witness to the document refused to say that the testator was of sound mind when the will was signed. The widow will now be made executrix and John R. Walsh, Jr., who was cut off by his father, will receive a share of the estate.

LACROSSE SOLDIER DIES NEAR MANILA

Sergeant Quartermaster Orlando Knutson Is Stricken by Spinal Meningitis

Word was recently received by relatives that Orlando Knutson, aged 28 years, sergeant quartermaster in the United States artillery, died of spinal meningitis at Fort William McKinley, near Manila in the Philippine islands, on January 11.

A letter dated December 11 from the young man was received by relatives here the same day that an official dispatch from Washington, D. C., on January 18, informed the family of the death of Mr. Knutson. He had been ill for only two weeks.

Mr. Knutson was born in Bostwick Valley on June 14, 1883, and he resided in La Crosse for many years. Seven years ago he enlisted at Fort Snelling, Minn., as an artilleryman, and he served there for three years. He did not enlist the next year, but in the following year he again enlisted and was stationed at Fort Sill, Wyoming, where he was an artilleryman. From there he went to Fort William McKinley, near Manila, Philippines, where he has been for several years. His three years of enlistment would have ended in March and he then intended to come home by way of Europe and New York.

He is survived by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Knutson, of Mindoro, Wis., and three sisters, the Misses Mabel and Irene Knutson of La Crosse, and Miss Isabelle Knutson of Mindoro, Wis.

The body of Mr. Knutson will be sent here and the funeral will be held at Mindoro.

Co. M's annual ball, Wednesday, Jan. 31.

shall have been depleted, the commissioners shall supply other names so that there will be not less than 150 nor more than 500 names in the box at the time any drawing of jurors takes place.

"Section 2525 specifies a large number of classes of citizens exempt from jury service.

"In the preparation of the official petit jury list for La Crosse county, it has been our sole aim to follow the letter and spirit of the statutes. Our purpose has been to obtain from the body of the county the names of persons qualified to sit and serve as jurors. No person who has not been deemed by us to be amply qualified to serve as a jurymen has had his name placed upon the official jury list.

No Politics in Case

"No consideration whatever has been given to the political affiliations of any man, neither to his financial standing. No man has been excluded from the list because of his class or his occupation. Merchants, manufacturers, laborers, capitalists, and farmers have exactly the same consideration, and their qualifications have been placed upon precisely the same grounds, eligibility under the law and their qualifications as regards intelligence and integrity.

"The official list is on file in the circuit court and it is at all times open to anyone who is desirous of knowing the facts. An examination of that list will show that fully one-third of all the names contained therein are those of laboring men.

"While our effort has always been to obtain for the court the best jurors possible, we recognize that in some instances we may have been mistaken in the qualifications of some men whose names have been placed upon the official list, but it has been an error in information and not of intention.

"In conclusion we invite inspection by the public of the official jury list on file in the office of the clerk of the circuit court.

"Respectfully,

"JOHN ULRICH,

"WM. SMITH,

"FRANK P. COBURN,

"Jury Commission.

WHY HESITATE?

An Offer that Involves no Money Risk if You Accept It

We are so positive our remedy will completely relieve constipation, no matter how chronic it may be, that we offer to furnish it free of all cost if it fails.

Constipation is commonly caused by weakness of the nerves and muscles of the large intestines. To expect a cure you must therefore tone up and strengthen those organs and restore them to healthy activity.

We want you to try Rexall Orderlies on our guarantee. They are eaten like candy, and are particularly good for children. They seem to act directly on the nerves and muscles of the bowels. They apparently have a neutral action on the other organs. They do not purge or cause other inconvenience. We will refund your money if they do not overcome chronic or habitual constipation and thus aid to relieve the myriads of associate or dependent chronic ailments. Try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. Three sizes, 10c, 25c and 50c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store. O. T. Erhart.

SISTER MATILDA IS LAID TO REST

Last Tribute Paid to Head of St. Francis Hospital, Who Died Friday

Sister Matilda (Lang), head of the St. Francis hospital for the last eight years and a sister at the St. Rose convent for forty years, who died Friday afternoon of cancer, was buried in the Catholic cemetery yesterday morning.

Funeral services were held in the St. Rose chapel at 9:15 o'clock yesterday morning when hundreds of friends, former patients, sisters, nurses, physicians and clergymen gathered to pay a last tribute to the memory of one who was beloved by all.

The priests who took part in the celebration of the requiem mass were: Rev. K. G. Beyer, celebrant; Rev. A. Murphy, deacon; Rev. J. Riesterer, sub-deacon and Rev. E. Beyer, master of ceremonies.

Several priests from other cities were present at the services.

MINISTER HAS QUEER DEFENSE

JOLIET, Ill., Jan. 30.—That the justice who married him to Miss Amanda Brenker of Beecher, failed to ask him if he had ever been married before, is the defense made here today by Rev. James Horton to the indictment charging him with a bigamous marriage. The preacher said he took Miss Brenker to Chicago and they were married by Justice Polk. They had to wait in line an hour before the knot was tied.

200 REBELS KILLED

TIEN TSIN, Jan. 30.—Manchu brigands and police at Mukden have already massacred 200 revolutionists, according to advices received tonight. The massacres are said to have been planned by General Chao Erb Fang, viceroy of the province, in retaliation for the assassination of his brother, General Chao Erb Hsun, by revolutionists.

SMALL ARMY IS IN LAWRENCE

Strikers Overawed by 21 Companies of Militia and Two Cavalry Troops

LAWRENCE, Mass., Jan. 30.—John Rami, an 18-year-old Syrian boy, was bayoneted in the back as he fled from a squad of militia on Elm street today. The police and officials did everything possible to keep the affair quiet. The police admit the boy was doing no wrong. He is not expected to live.

LAWRENCE, Mass., Jan. 30.—The grim truth of the textile workers' strike was realized by all Lawrence today when state militiamen, their rifles loaded and with double allowance of ball cartridges in their webbed belts, patrolled every avenue leading to the great mill section of the city, the business section, and the aristocratic residence quarter. The mill owners demand for additional troops to "over-awe the strikers" was granted by Governor Foss and all through the night additional armed men arrived until today a small army was on duty.

The soldiers were ordered to prevent rioting at any cost. Last night's demonstration which resulted in the accidental killing of one woman—a striker—hit by a stray bullet, and in which police and strikers fought hand to hand, was responsible for this order.

There were 21 companies of infantry and two troops of cavalry on the ground today. In addition the police force had been increased to 200 men and the mill men had 2,000 "detectives."

Early today a militiaman on guard who said he saw 25 men trying to cross the ice on the Merrimack river from Lawrence to the Uswoco mills fired a shot. The entire guard at that point rushed to the scene. If there were actually any strikers here, they fled, although the soldiers fired across the ice for several minutes.

Pleads Not Guilty

LAWRENCE, Mass., Jan. 30.—John Breen, leading undertaker, school commissioner and son of former Mayor Breen, pleaded not guilty today of having "planted" dynamite.

The strike leaders allege that Breen secured the dynamite and "planted" it to discredit their cause and that he then tipped the police where to go to "discover" it and arrest those who had it.

LAST STATEMENT BY WATERSON IN WILSON FIGHT

pledge touching primary elections. In this he was clearly right.

"The presidential campaign to which the gubernatorial election had served as a prelude began. In a manner I had been dragged, I will not say deceived, into the service of Governor Wilson and Colonel Harvey. The succeeding ten months brought me into confidential relations with Governor Wilson. Letters passed between us. Upon his invitation and on his business I visited his home in Princeton. He was good enough last winter to come to the steamer to see me off for Europe. We were even caught by the inevitable kodak fiend, and pictorialized in the ribald press side by side, making quite a touching group.

"I found him a man of polished manners, scholarly attainments and undeniable talents. "On my return from abroad the governor met me in New York. Again in November and December we foregathered there.

"I make this declared statement because the public might fancy from the governor's present attitude and tone that I had in some way thrust myself upon him and that my friendship and support had not been desired by him.

Secured a Considerable Sum

"The fortnight immediately preceding the interview at the Manhattan club, of which I have been at pains to say as little as was needful to justice between man and man and men and men, I had done what I could in the interest of his campaign. I was met on my arrival by a most urgent appeal for money by a gentleman of distinction, closely associated with, if not actually directing the Wilson organization, and in answer to this I was able at once to secure a considerable sum of money. The meeting at the Manhattan club was designed still further to push forward and perfect the work of organization. Else why and for what was the governor there?

"To confuse and mislead the public he has latterly adopted a policy of alternate silence and sneering. Giving the lie direct to my statement that I was asked to help the financial end of his campaign, and declining my offer to submit the proof of its truth to a body of gentlemen and democrats equally concerned with ourselves for the well being of the party, he thinks to cloud the issue and escape its menace by turning upon me the irresponsible chatter of a literary bureau which claims to live off the immaculate contributions of subscribers having wings, harps and halos and which has been for weeks flooding the country with every manner of falsification. The best evidence of this, to say nothing of the sources of its being, should set honest people to thinking.

"Lie Out of Whole Cloth"

"The Ryan story, which has made such an impression upon the unknowing and unreflecting was, as far as it related to Col. Harvey, a lie out

LA FOLLETTE TO KEEP IN RAGE

Wisconsin Senator Will Keep Up Campaign Despite Roosevelt Sentiment

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Viewing Theodore Roosevelt as a candidate for the presidential nomination, underwriters and members of the directorate of the La Follette movement met here last evening and decided to keep on with the campaign in behalf of the Wisconsin senator.

It was stated tonight that while it is believed Roosevelt is a candidate for the nomination—if not active, then receptive—the La Follette propaganda will be pushed solely in the interest of the senator and not with any double-harness arrangement. In other words, according to the declarations from La Follette headquarters, there is no understanding by which La Follette delegates will be sought with the object of throwing them to Roosevelt or vice versa.

Denial was made that any authority had been given La Follette managers in Nebraska to negotiate for division of the delegates from that state between Roosevelt and La Follette as indicated in recent dispatches from Omaha. Louis D. Brandeis of Massachusetts, one of the financial backers of the La Follette movement, will leave tomorrow for Nebraska to stump for the senator.

Those present at the important conference last night included Senator La Follette, Gifford Pinchot, Amos Pinchot of New York, Charles R. Crane, Professor Charles E. Merriam, Medill McCormick and Walter S. Rogers of Chicago, Representative William Kent of Chicago, Representative Lenroot of Wisconsin, Louis D. Brandeis and Walter L. Houser and Colonel John Hannan of the headquarters staff.

of whole cloth. Though Gov. Wilson knows this, he has allowed it to circulate without a word of contradiction. This attempt, which followed its exposure by me, to make it appear that I have intimated that application was made to Mr. Ryan, is cut off the same cloth and is characteristic of the duplicity which attaches itself to the entire proceedings of the governor and his publicity agents.

"The suggestion of Mr. Ryan was eagerly caught up by those agents. Fancy a political promoter refusing money from any where or anybody. But when I spoke to Gov. Wilson about it he said some uncivil things of Mr. Ryan, expressing a fear that if the knowledge of such a contribution got abroad it might do more harm than good—an opinion with which Col. Harvey promptly concurred—and the matter went no further. I might have asked Gov. Wilson how he could reconcile his objection to Ryan money, which had not yet been offered him, with his demand for Carnegie pension money, which had been denied him. But, although growing a little impatient under his sudden change of demeanor, I did not wish to be disengaged. Certain it is that Mr. Ryan never heard of the matter. Neither I nor anyone else spoke to him on the subject. The effort of the Wilson promoters to revive it and bring it to the front is simply an unprincipled attempt to divert the public attention from the fact that Gov. Wilson has been rattling round as a hero because of his indignant rejection of Ryan, the truth being that Ryan was never pressed upon him at all.

Demands Letters to Harvey

"His 'courageous repudiation' of Harvey which has put such a feather in his cap, was of a piece with this. While Gov. Wilson was receiving popular applause because of his sacrifice of private friendship to public duty, he was groveling at Harvey's feet after pardon for the shameful and heartless treatment he admitted having bestowed upon Harvey at the Manhattan club. If he possesses a spark of honorable sensibility he will at once demand and require the publication of the subject letter he wrote to Harvey when he must square the account of ingratitude or take the consequences."

Conscience is the man; and the man is just what environment and his bringing up have made of him.

I've begun to think that there is not half the honor among thieves as there is thievery among the hoarded.

ROOSEVELT WILL RUN IF URGED

This Is Statement Made Today in Letter by Lawrence Abbott of the Outlook

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 30.—"It is for his party and his country, and not for Colonel Roosevelt to decide the question of whether he is again to be a candidate for the presidency. If they decide to nominate him, I am sure he will accept. He will no more decline their call than he would decline to enlist if needed in the time of war."

The above quotation is part of a formal written statement over the signature of Lawrence F. Abbott, president of the Outlook company of which Colonel Roosevelt is contributing editor, sent today to former Governor E. C. Stokes, who gave the text to the United Press.

Mr. Abbott says in part: "I am convinced that he does not desire the nomination and will enter no contest to obtain it. I am equally convinced that if his countrymen have still further need of his services as their executive, he will no more decline their call than he would decline to enlist if needed in time of war."

"I base my opinion on his own words. On the 18th of June, 1910, when he arrived in New York on his return from Africa, he replied to Mayor Gaynor's address of welcome as follows:

"I am ready and eager to do my part so far as I am able, in helping solve problems which must be solved if we of this, the greatest democratic republic upon which the sun has ever shone, are to see its destinies rise to the high level of our hopes and its opportunities. This is the duty of every citizen, but it is peculiarly my duty; for any man who has ever been honored by being made president of the United States is thereafter rendered forever debtor of the American people and is bound throughout his life to remember this as his prime obligation, and, in private life as much as in public life, so to carry himself that the American people may never have cause to feel regret that once they placed him at their head."

"Trusting that I have satisfactorily answered your question, I am,

"Yours sincerely,

"LAWRENCE F. ABBOTT."

STEEL BILL TO SENATE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Unscathed despite the assaults of a republican minority in the house the Underwood bill, revising downward the metal schedule, was presented to the senate today and will shortly be in the hands of the finance committee. The measure passed the house late yesterday by a vote of 210 to 109.
The republicans who supported the bill, all insurgents, are: Davis, (Minn.); Haugen, (Ia.); Helgeson, (N. D.); Hubbard, (Ia.); Jackson, (Kas.); Kent, (Cal.); Klunk, (Neb.); Lafferty, (Ore.); La Follette, (Wis.); Lindbergh Minn.; Lenroot, (Wis.); Moore, (Wis.); Murdoch, (Kas.); Nelson, (Wis.); Norris, (Neb.); Sloan, (Neb.); Stephens (Cal.); Warburton (Wash.); Woods (Ala.); Young, (Kas.).
The insurgent republicans who voted against its passage are: Anderson (Minn.); Cooper (Wis.); Esch (Wis.); French (Idaho); Good (Ia.); Green (Ia.); Hayes (Cal.); Kendall (Ia.); Kennedy (Ia.); Kopp (Wis.); Pickett (Ia.); Miller (Minn.); Steenerson (Minn.); Volstead (Minn.).
To censure is a privilege; to praise is a duty.

Grain Letter

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Easier conditions prevailed in the wheat market today and the range of prices was somewhat lower than yesterday, although at every dip a concerted buying movement became evident. On reports of a smaller movement of the grain in the northwest the prices there were somewhat lower, a condition that puzzled local traders. This market was controlled by cable reports showing prices lower in Liverpool and bearings news from Argentina.

There was an early break in corn followed by excellent support that brought the market back to yesterday's level. A drive at the market at the outset based on reports of fine weather and a larger movement of the crop was met with a constant stream of buying orders from local commission houses.
There was a firm tone in the oats trading after the early weakness induced by the break in corn. There is heavy demand for cash oats and this had a stimulating effect on the trading in futures.
Provisions were firm following a stronger tone in the hog market. There was some short covering, while offerings were lighter than during the past week.

YANKEE GIRL DOESN'T FIT

Austrian Critic Declares No Formula Can Define Young Lady From America.

Alice Schalek, Viennese traveler and writer, has provided the Vossische Zeitung of Berlin with a description of the manner wherein American women on tour differ from all others. "The fact is," she says, "you cannot class them (American women); they won't fit into any accepted formula. "You can tell a Frenchwoman immediately, and be dead sure she's no prude, but a light-hearted flirt. If you meet an English woman you must wait to make her acquaintance until she drops her typical English reserve. "A German woman wants to be asked about her husband and his profession, titles and their babies. An Austrian woman will be smart and a 'good fellow.' But if you meet a woman who won't fit any of these categories and doesn't correspond to any particular type, you can be dead sure she is an American. "There is a 17-year-old whose father, mother and elder sister are along, traveling in cabins de luxe. She flirts day and night on deck, and all so naturally that she retains her social position in circumstances no other nationality could survive. 'What has it got to do with you?' she seems to ask, and there's an end of it. "Here are some pictures from my gallery of American girls abroad, just to show their differences. A girl who patted white rats and snakes in Kyoto; a young Y. W. C. A. apostle in Corea, who was as pious as the day is long, but who flirted to her heart's content with a young English missionary; an energetic middle-aged American female, who was missionary for some obscure Parisian reincarnation of Buddha. "There were other less pleasant pictures, but each sticks in my mind with an individuality which no European woman ever achieved. Yet perhaps there is one feature common to all these Americans—each of them cherished some eccentricity, but whatever it was, she carried it out with unwavering determination. "I believe we can learn much from these American women."

MINNY LEAGUE TO MEET FEB. 1

Vice President Ferrin Sets Date for Meeting when a President is to Be Elected

President J. A. Elliott of the local baseball team yesterday received notice from J. J. Ferrin, vice-president of the Minny league, that a meeting of the organization will be held at the Arlington club at Winona on February 1 to elect president and to attend to such other business as may come up.

This is the meeting at which the question of whether or not the Minny league shall play ball again next summer will be definitely settled. Although a meeting was held in Winona last Friday the directors did not decide on the fate of the league.

Mr. Elliott said yesterday that he would call a meeting of the directors of the local club and the baseball fans in this city to be held on Wednesday in order to see what the opinion of La Crosse people on the question of having a ball team is and also to determine whether there are any instructions to give the delegate from this city. It is likely that the sentiment expressed at this meeting will determine which way the local delegate votes when the question comes up before the league.

"I notice that some of the papers are advocating me for the presidency of the Minny league," said Mr. Elliott yesterday, "but I will not accept the position." In this manner the local president emphatically declared that he would not be a candidate for the position of head of the league.

TRAIN AT MARLIN SPRINGS

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Little doubt is expressed today that the Giants will do their training at Marlin Springs, Texas, as usual. Manager McGraw, who has sent agents to Texas, has learned that the meningitis scare has been greatly exaggerated and declares the Giants will go to Marlin Springs at the appointed time.

KILL BASEBALL AT CHICAGO U

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Athletic authorities at the university of Chicago expect that Coach A. A. Stagg of the Midway school will hurl a bomb into the "Big Eight" conference upon his return from the east. His friends believe he will recommend that baseball be abolished at Chicago university rather than give in to the "compromise" which is considered a partial letting down of the bars to professionalism.

OLYMPIAN TRYOUTS

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Dr. E. W. White, physical director of the Illinois Athletic association, announced today that western swimmers desiring a tryout for a place on the American swimming team to be sent to the Olympic games would have a chance at the open swimming meet to be held here Feb. 15.

HUGO COMES BACK

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Hugo Kelly, the veteran middleweight, and for years the rival of Stanley Kechee and Billy Papke, is here today intent upon launching a "come back" campaign. The clever Italian who wears the Irish name, declares he is as good as ever and will challenge Mike Gibbons for an early battle.

Ailments of Men

Happily Overcome SUCCESSFULLY TRIED BY MANY

Undoubtedly the following prescription will work wonders for that great class of men who, through dissipation of their natural strength, find themselves in their "second childhood" long before the three score and ten allotted to life's pleasures and enjoyments are reached.

It is presumed to be infallible, and highly efficient in quickly restoring in "nervous exhaustion," weak vitality, melancholia and the functions.

First get fifty cents' worth of compound fluid balmwort in a one-ounce package, and three ounces syrup sarsaparilla compound; take home, mix and let stand two hours; then get one ounce compound essence cardiol and one ounce tincture cadomene compound (not cardamom). Mix all in a six or eight ounce bottle, shake well, and take one teaspoonful after each meal and one when retiring followed by a drink of water.

By mixing it at home no man need be the wiser as to another's shortcomings, and expensive fees are avoided.

Lack of poise and equilibrium in men is a constant source of embarrassment even when the public least suspects it. For the benefit of those who want a restoration to full, bounding health, and all the happiness accompanying it, the above home treatment is given. It contains no opiates or habit-forming drugs whatever. Mix it at home and no one will be the wiser as to your affliction.

Finicky? Do you care whether your food is clean or not? One of the reasons you will find particular delight in Van Houten's lies in the fact that you can be absolutely sure that it is clean — pure — wholesome

It's made in thrifty Holland, under the most sanitary conditions—and is delivered to you in the original germ-proof cans—twice as strong as ordinary cocoa. Order from your grocer — today — and make the test. A quarter.

POPULAR THROUGHOUT THE BASEBALL WORLD

MORRIS O'NEILL

CHICAGO, Ill.—It is not very often that a big league ball player rises to the office of the president of a baseball league. But that is just what Morris O'Neill, president of the Western league, has done. O'Neill is known from one end of the baseball map to the other as "Tip." Formerly he was a second baseman, and he was a good one, too.

O'Neill has pulled off some wonderful stuff since he became head of the league. Several times that organization seemed to be on the rocks, but with O'Neill's executive ability it was pulled out of prospective trouble, and right now the league is in fine shape. O'Neill is closer to Comiskey than any other baseball man.

HUNT RACING BOAT

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Efforts are being made today to find a motorboat to accept the defi of John J. Ryan of Cincinnati, who, visiting here, offered to bet $2,500 that his boat, the Reliance, can beat any other boat in the world over any course. Ryan declared the Reliance could do fifty miles an hour. He will enter it in the international boat race against the French and English craft.

O'KEEFE BEATS CARROLL

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 30.—Eddie O'Keefe, the Philadelphia featherweight, was declared by fight fans here today to be a logical candidate for a match with Abe Attell. In the sixth round of his fight last night with Jimmy Carroll, the Californian, O'Keefe landed a knockout punch that sent Carroll to sleep for a full minute.

PACKEY TO FIGHT GIBBONS?

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Determined efforts are to be made today to match Packey McFarland and Mike Gibbons, the famous featherweight. McFarland will probably never be able to fight again in the legitimate lightweight division, and as Gibbons can make 145 easily, there is no ground for belief that the match may be arranged.

CABBY WHITE HOPE

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Con McCormiskey, the local cab driver white hope, started today for Pittsburgh, where he will participate in several battles next week. He expects to qualify for a bout in the near future with either Palzer or Carl Morris.

KERR BEATS WARREN

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 30.—Bert Kerr, the local billiardist today boosted the standing of the local team in the National Billiard league as the result of his victory last night over Charles Warren, the Bostonist. The three cushion play was close throughout and Kerr won only by clever jockeying of the balls at the close. The score was 50 to 48.

M'GOORTY VS. COFFEY TONIGHT

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—A batt that may settle the middleweight championship muddle will be fought tonight at the Fairmont Athletic club, when Eddie McGoorty and Walter Coffey meet in a ten round bout. Frank Klaus, the tentative holder of the championship, will be matched to fight the winner. McGoorty is slight favorite.

KLAUS BEATS K. O.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 30.—Friend of Frank Klaus, the middleweight star, today are exclaiming: "I hope you'll follow his victory over Knockout Brown of Chicago, who is outpointed in six fast rounds last night."
